Cultural Expression and Subjectivity of Chinese Peasants Sha Yao, 2021-07-27 As the famous sociologist Fei Xiaotong argued the real life of most Chinese can only be seen in the villages Peasants not only comprise a significant part of the Chinese population but represent a distinctive culture and one that is expressed in its own particular way This makes for an important area of study for scholars in communication studies This volume investigates how Chinese peasants express their culture and adapt to social change The author s research consists of participant observation and interviews of shadow puppetry artists in Guanzhong China illustrating how peasant artists have adapted to the historical and social changes since the founding of the People s Republic of China He discovers that Chinese peasants integrate urban popular culture with their own aesthetic criteria even if the mainstream discourse of the Chinese community overlooks the subjectivity of peasants He goes on to put forwards a creative analytical framework for the studies of the dynamics of subject time space Scholars and students of anthropology sociology and communication studies especially rural communication studies will find this an ideal case study

Haydn's Sunrise, Beethoven's Shadow Deirdre Loughridge,2016-09-06 The years between roughly 1760 and 1810 a period stretching from the rise of Joseph Haydn s career to the height of Ludwig van Beethoven s are often viewed as a golden age for musical culture when audiences started to revel in the sounds of the concert hall But the latter half of the eighteenth century also saw proliferating optical technologies including magnifying instruments magic lanterns peepshows and shadow plays that offered new performance tools fostered musical innovation and shaped the very idea of pure music Haydn s Sunrise Beethoven s Shadow is a fascinating exploration of the early romantic blending of sight and sound as encountered in popular science street entertainments opera and music criticism Deirdre Loughridge reveals that allusions in musical writings to optical technologies reflect their spread from fairgrounds and laboratories into public consciousness and a range of discourses including that of music She demonstrates how concrete points of intersection composers treatments of telescopes and peepshows in opera for instance or a shadow play performance of a ballad could then fuel new modes of listening that aimed to extend the senses An illuminating look at romantic musical practices and aesthetics this book yields surprising relations between the past and present and offers insight into our own contemporary audiovisual culture The Shadow Teller's Plays Bill Reed, 2017-12-13 In a volume containing 14 original plays including three shadow play adaptations of Gogol Morton and Runyon classics the author resurrects a sadly neglected theatre genre the shadow play combining traditional shadow techniques with normal acting to create full bodied mainstream plays These plays do not use shadow puppetry type techniques that need people contorting themselves however wonderfully to form shapes but rather normal acting prowess together and usual props of mainstream theatre with the new back lighting technologies The result is plays which are realistic and yet overlain with the imaginative fantasies that figure theatre can bring in a fallow area lying between mime and conventional stage plays a rediscovered form of a modern staging that crosses between live and shadow effect whether in workshopping for all ages and group size or for professional productions Shadow plays comprise the theatre landscape for live actors re skilled to jump from behind the screen one dimensional acting to front of the screen three dimensional acting at any moment of the play They allow a new and exciting way of presenting the combination of the real and the surreal in ways that offer broadened audience and student experiences under the master of storytelling of a shadow teller together with the master of pacing of a mobile light spotter The Asian Shadow Play J. Tilakasiri, 1999

Comprehensive study of shadow puppetry in several Asian countries as well as the Middle East Europe England and America

Shadows of Empire Laurie Jo Sears, 1996 Shadows of Empire explores Javanese shadow theater as a staging area for negotiations between colonial power and indigenous traditions Charting the shifting boundaries between myth and history in Javanese Mahabharata and Ramayana tales Laurie J Sears reveals what happens when these stories move from village performances and palace manuscripts into colonial texts and nationalist journals and most recently comic books and novels Historical anthropological and literary in its method and insight this work offers a dramatic reassessment of both Javanese literary theatrical production and Dutch scholarship on Southeast Asia Though Javanese shadow theater wayang has existed for hundreds of years our knowledge of its history performance practice and role in Javanese society only begins with Dutch documentation and interpretation in the nineteenth century Analyzing the Mahabharata and Ramayana tales in relation to court poetry Islamic faith Dutch scholarship and nationalist journals Sears shows how the shadow theater as we know it today must be understood as a hybrid of Javanese and Dutch ideas and interests inseparable from a particular colonial moment In doing so she contributes to a re envisioning of European histories that acknowledges the influence of Asian African and New World cultures on European thought and to a rewriting of colonial and postcolonial Javanese histories that questions the boundaries and content of history and story myth and allegory colonialism and culture Shadows of Empire will appeal not only to specialists in Javanese culture and historians of Indonesia but also to a wide range of scholars in the areas of performance and literature anthropology Southeast Asian studies and postcolonial studies Puppetry for All Times Ghulam-Sarwar Yousof, 2014-10-17 The Puppetry for All Times Seminar held in September of 2013 in Ubud Bali was one of the most enchanting of events of its kind held anywhere in recent years Its success revolved around the fantastic locale the overwhelming response from performers as well as the paper presenters and the generous support of Rumah Topeng the House of Masks and Puppets Setiadarma In Puppetry for All Times editor Ghulam Sarwar Yousof offers a unique collection of papers presented at this weeklong seminar by academicians as well as performers of various traditions of Asian puppetry The papers cover a wide range of interests and perspectives in puppetry and theater including history and tradition heritage preservation and conversation tradition and modernity and digital puppetry and media Puppetry for All Times recaps a key international event in the realm of puppet theater marking the beginning of such endeavors as Rumah Topeng's maiden academic publication

Travel Shadows by Justinus Kerner Harold B. Segel, 2014-03-17 Justinus Kerner 1786 1862 was one of the most celebrated figures in nineteenth century German culture A physician by training he was also a leading member of the Swabian Romantic circle of poets which included among others Ludwig Uhland and Gustav Schwab Kerner's international fame rests primarily on his contributions to the investigation of paranormal phenomena The most important of these was his exhaustive case study Die Seherin von Prevorst The Seeress of Prevorst 1829 The book was translated into English in 1849 by the English writer Catherine Crowe 1803 76

Until the present this has been the only work of Kerner available in English Apart from his many scientific publications and his poetry Kerner was also the author of one of the more intriguing literary works of German Romanticism Die Reiseschatten Travel Shadows 1811 Ostensibly an account of his travels through Germany and Austria following his graduation from the University of Tübingen the book is a highly imaginative almost surreal concoction of Romantic sentimental grotesque satirical and Old German folkloric elements Attributed by Kerner to an itinerant shadow performer named Lux Travel Shadows was inspired by the tradition of Chinese Shadows ombres chinoises and represents Kerner's attempt to create a travel narrative in the form of a grandiose shadow show In the introduction to his translation of Travel Shadows the first in English Harold B Segel situates Kerner's work in the context of the emergence of a German shadow show tradition in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Dimensions of Shadow Play in Malay Civilisation, 2006 Dancing with the Spirits of Shadowplay Bonnie Breuilly-Pike, 2012-11-05 No matter what the faith or season of the year all human beings seek everyday epiphanies occasions when we can experience the sacred and the beautiful in the absolute ordinary In doing so we come to an awakening that we cannot afford to throw away even one more unimportant day by not noticing the wonder of it all Sometimes we just forget to take the time to honestly see our world most times actually Some of the simplest things that make us feel alive and more importantly loved are right at our fingertips or just outside our backdoor and we constantly seem to either ignore or miss them A good morning kiss The first real day of spring every year An unexpected call from your significant other to just say I love you The appreciative wag of your dog's tail when you give him his favorite treat The scent of a newly opened rose bud The hug your grandchild gives you when he runs across the yard when he first sees you However Bonnie Pike seems to notice all of these things and more She has the wonderful talent to put into words those feelings and emotions of life with all of its loves as well as its pains This is Bonnie's third volume of poetry Her prior volumes Survive The Shadowstalker A Poetic Journey Through Abuse was released in 2002 and Shadows Of Love was released in 2011 In this compilation of poetry Bonnie takes you through the natural order of life which she has gleaned through her love of her adopted home state of AZ Do you want to come and play and dance and dream Then meet Bonnie at the Superstition Mountain just off the Apache Trail and she will show you the way Come and dance with the spirits of shadowplay

Shadows Moved Kaia Stonebrook, 2025-03-03 Shadows Moved explores the surprising influence of shadows on history science and art It examines how something as simple as a shadow has shaped our understanding of time influenced artistic expression and guided storytelling across cultures The book argues that shadows often overlooked have played a crucial role in shaping our perception of the world The book delves into the history of sundials demonstrating how these ancient timekeeping devices reflected the astronomical knowledge of their eras It also analyzes shadow play revealing its diverse expressions across cultures as entertainment education and social commentary Furthermore the book investigates the cognitive psychology behind shadow perception explaining how our brains interpret shadows to construct a three dimensional world Structured in three parts the book first introduces the scientific principles of shadow formation and their historical context It then details the evolution of sundials and other shadow based timekeeping methods Finally it explores shadow play and its global variations By blending science history and art Shadows Moved offers a unique perspective on the enduring relevance of shadows
