Dawn of the Disciples - Part One of the Arlanian Trilogy Mark O'Doherty, 2014-05-07

The Hungry Tide 2004 by Amitav Ghosh Set in the Sundarbans this novel is about an unlikely trio who travel up river together to find the rare Irrawaddy Dolphin Off the easternmost coast of India in the Bay of Bengal lies the immense labyrinth of tiny islands known as the Sundarbans For settlers here life is precarious attacks by deadly tigers are common and the threat of eviction and consequent social unrest is ever present Without warning at any time tidal floods rise and surge over the land leaving devastation in their wake In this place of vengeful beauty the lives of three people from different worlds collide The novel also explores topics such as humanism and environmentalism especially when they come into conflict The novel won the 2004 Crossword Book Prize Saswat S Das discussed the book as exploring themes of home and homelessness in a 2006 article in Indian Literature The Morichjhanpi massacre of 1978 79 when the government of West Bengal forcibly evicted thousands of Bengali refugees who had settled on the island forms a background for some parts of the novel Indeed my dear friend the Goddess Kali who holds sway over both Humanity and the Environment in India found this novel to be very entertaining and factual about India Especially the methods to harmonize Humanism and Environmentalism were described very accurately so that People Dolphins Crocodiles and man eating Tigers can live in Peace and Harmony with each other On that note we would like to remind all People in India that Human Evolution is a constant in the Universe Just like imperialism had to make way for Liberty and Social Justice so will inequality and classism make way for Equality Equity Prosperity and Human Rights in India We would like to remind all People in the International Community that the importance of belonging to Humankind takes precedence over all the marks of distinction that may separate one person from another The thing that matters most is not that we have any particular cultural or national identity or that we abide by any particular religion or philosophical conviction but that we share with all People the highest values of Humanity Love Cooperation and Compassion Love and Light Mark BTB Global Peacebuilding PS The combination of grace strength agility and enormous power has earned the Irrawaddy Dolphin her pride of place as the national animal of India
