Wiltgen, 2010-06-01 The Founding of the Roman Catholic Church in Oceania 1825 1850 is the first detailed and documentary history of the seminal period of Roman Catholic missionary activity Beginning with the founding of the Prefecture Apostolic of the Sandwich Islands in 1825 there was continued development in Australia New Zealand Melanesia Micronesia and Polynesia for the next quarter century By 1850 this vast area of the South Seas could boast of one archdiocese eight dioceses and eight vicariates apostolic This lively dramatic narrative is told largely through the words of the participants drawn from diaries documents and letters found in the archives of the Vatican and several religious orders The comprehensive tale ranges from the politics of the Vatican to sufferings on outpost islands The focus of attention shifts from Rome to Paris Valparaiso Sydney Honiara Auckland and many other places in a study of men and institutions faith and emotion rivalries and confusions murder and annexation God and mammon Originally published in 1979 this important historical study had been out of print and virtually unavailable for many years until this new edition was completed

His Natural Life Marcus Clarke, 2001 His Natural Life has retained Australian classic status for over one hundred years Scarcely ever out of print since first written during the early 1870s it has provided successive generations with a vivid account of a brutal phase of colonial life The main focus of this great convict novel is the complex interaction between those in power and those who suffer made meaningful because of its hero's struggle against the destructiveness of his wrongful imprisonment While much of the story is necessarily grim Marcus Clarke has used elements of romance incidents of family life and passages of scenic description to both relieve and give emphasis to the tragedy that forms its heart

A Compulsion to Kill Robert Cox, 2014-08-21 The latest work from acclaimed historical author Robert Cox A Compulsion to Kill is a dramatic chronological account of 19th century Tasmanian serial murderers Never before revealed in such depth the story is the culmination of extensive research and adept craftsmanship as it probes the essence of both the crimes and the killers themselves Beginning in 1806 with Australia's first serial killers John Brown and Richard Lemon A Compulsion to Kill recounts the stories of Alexander Pearce the cannibal convict Thomas Jeffrey a sadist sexual predator cannibal and baby killer known as the monster Charles Routley who burnt one of his victims alive cannibal convicts Broughton and McAvoy Rocky Whelan who in twenty four days slew five men in cold blood and John Haley who killed three people in fits of rage The final chapter investigates the still unsolved Parkmount murders three killings for which the two probable culprits twice faced court only to be discharged due to faulty police investigation and neglected evidence Most of these stories have never been told before and none has previously been related with such detail and verifiable accuracy A determined storyteller Cox delivers a supremely dramatic page turner in the true crime genre The book includes extensive references and an index

Footprints in the Sand Virginia Meehan, 2016-11-26 Arthur Meehan lived and dreamed the development of a cattle station in the Murchison area of Western Australia His wife Kit Murphy tried to support him and build a family in the Outback of the North West This is their life as seen by one of their five daughters a story of love and tragedy success and misfortune light hearted fun and total misery the good and the bad of the rural heart of Australia Virginia Meehan has a vivid recall of her childhood years first on Mt Vernon station in the Murchison and then on Hillside Station in the Pilbara when circumstances forced the family to start again Her memories include living through the radioactive fallout of the Monte Bello atomic tests the effects of the alone on the mental health of outback people and the tragedies when all they could do was not enough Bookbuyers' Reference Book ,1973 Shadow Over Tasmania Coultman Smith,1947 Shadow Over Tasmania Beverly Coultman Smith,1944

Shadow Over Tasmania Coultman Smith,1965 Donated by L D Crawford OAM 24 February 2009 The Memory of Genocide in Tasmania, 1803-2013 Jesse Shipway,2016-11-02 This book presents a philosophical history of Tasmania s past and present with a particular focus on the double stories of genocide and modernity On the one hand proponents of modernisation have sought to close the past off from the present concealing the demographic disaster behind less demanding historical narratives and politicised preoccupations such as convictism and environmentalism The second story meanwhile is told by anyone aboriginal or European who has gone to the archive and found the genocidal horrors hidden there This volume blends both stories It describes the dual logics of genocide and modernity in Tasmania and suggests that Tasmanians will not become more realistic about the future until they can admit a full recognition of the colonial genocide that destroyed an entire civilisation not much more than 200 years ago Telltale Carmel Bird,2022-07-01 I was confined locked into my library tracing my heartbeats from way way back In Telltale Carmel Bird seizes on an enforced isolation to re read a rich dispensary of books from her past A rule she sets herself is that she can consult only the books in her house even if some such as the much loved Thornton Wilder s The Bridge of San Luis Rey appear to be stubbornly elusive Her library is comprehensive and each book chosen or that cannot be refused enables an opening a connection to people time place myth image and the experience of a writing life From her father s bomb shelter to her mother s raspberry jam from a lost Georgian public library with narrow little streets of books to the memory of crossing by bridge the turbulent waters of the Tamar River to a revelatory picnic at Tasmania s Cataract Gorge in 1945 this is the most intimate of memoirs It is one that never shies from the horrors of world history the treatment of First Nations People or the literary misrepresentations of the past Original lyrical and hugely enjoyable Telltale with its finely wrought insight and artful storytelling is destined to delight A book about books that dreams you through a library of life Bruce Pascoe I have so loved this book It walks us through the encounters of a lifetime always with a delightful eye for strange connections and elusive memories It is testimony to a life of great intellectual generosity and human compassion It is irresistible Michael McGirr Death is a Good Solution Anthony William Baker,1984 Tasmanian Almanac ,1975 Farewell to Judges & Juries Hugh Anderson,2000 This important work is the first detailed collection of the ballads of convict transportation to be made and includes approximately 140 broadside ballads and songs many with tunes The remainder of the book is made up of an extensive name Index Index of Titles and First Lines a Bibliography of works on both transportations and broadsides and notes on the Sources The work is an essential reference work for early Australian literature and complements Ferguson Australian Books in Print, 1985 Battle Scarred Craig Deayton, 2011-03-07 The dead and wounded of the 47th lay everywhere underfoot With these words Charles Bean Australia's Official War Historian described the battlefield of Dernancourt on the morning of the 5th of April 1918 strewn with the bodies of the Australian dead It was the final tragic chapter in the story of the 47th Australian Infantry Battalion in the First World War One of the shortest lived and most battle hardened of the 1st Australian Imperial Force's battalions the 47th was formed in Egypt in 1916 and disbanded two years later having suffered one of the highest casualty rates of any Australian unit Their story is remarkable for many reasons Dogged by command and discipline troubles and bled white by the desperate attrition battles of 1916 and 1917 they fought on against a determined and skilful enemy in battles where the fortunes of war seemed stacked against them at every turn Not only did they have the misfortune to be called into some of the A I F's most costly campaigns chance often found them in the worst places within those battles Though their story is one of almost unrelieved tragedy it is also story of remarkable courage endurance and heroism It is the story of the 1st A I F itself punished beaten sometimes reviled for their indiscipline they fought on fewer leaner and harder until final victory was won And at its end in an extraordinary gesture of mateship the remnants of the 47th Battalion reunited Having been scattered to other units after their disbandment the survivors gathered in Belgium for one last photo together Only 73 remained

Montgomery vs Rommel at El Agheila 1942 Zita Ballinger Fletcher, 2025-04-28 Explores the complex rivalry between Generals Montgomery and Rommel in North Africa highlighting their contrasting strategies and personal traits In 1942 following a decisive British victory at the Second Battle of El Alamein the sands of fortune were shifting against German forces in the Sahara Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's inexorable advance toward Cairo was thwarted Church bells pealed in embattled England for the first time since the start of World War II as Winston Churchill hailed the end of the beginning But the elusive Desert Fox was a master of mobility Even as the sun set on his desert glory he was far from finished British Gen Bernard Montgomery victor of El Alamein was at then the highest point of his career He had overcome many adversities to meet his moment of military destiny galvanized a flagging army and smashed the proud German troops with a blow he would be proud of for the rest of his life But Monty found his own fortunes changing as he pursued the Desert Fox Hamstrung by a distended supply line Monty was now vulnerable to attack by the vengeful Rommel The British troops flush with victory grew fearful as they approached an eerie dune wasteland in Libya known as El Agheila One setback would be enough to cast their laurels into the dust and shatter their faith in their rising commander Both generals faced each other with uncertainty as another fight loomed on the horizon One false move could have far reaching political consequences The outcome of the battle would answer a critical question who would hold the gateway to Egypt This compelling book tells the story of Monty and

Rommel battling in North Africa as never before describing them as two very different commanders and shedding light on the dissimilar characteristics that made them formidable fighters It argues that Monty was more aggressive than many historians give him credit for and that Rommel had more of a conscience than is often attributed to him examining the origins of his disloyalty to Hitler This riveting read draws attention to a little known battle with great implications on the course of World War II history also describing the powerful external forces of politics media coverage and the desert itself that swirled around two famous generals forced to duel on uneven footing Australian Coastal Shipping Barry Pemberton,1979 This book presents a description of the growth and location of Australian coastal and overseas shipping providing information about the ships and shipowners of each trade what cargo they carried the routes they followed and when they finished
