Supreme Court, Appellate Division- First Department , Greatness in the Shadows Douglas M. Branson,2016 Just weeks after Jackie Robinson joined the Brooklyn Dodgers Larry Doby joined Robinson in breaking the color barrier in the major leagues when he became the first black player to integrate the American League signing with the Cleveland Indians in July 1947 Doby went on to be a seven time All Star center fielder who led the Indians to two pennants In many respects Robinson and Doby were equals in their baseball talent and experiences and had remarkably similar playing careers both were well educated well spoken World War II veterans and both had played spectacularly albeit briefly in the Negro Leagues Like Robinson Doby suffered brickbats knock down pitches spit in his face and other forms of abuse and discrimination Doby was also a pioneering manager becoming the second black manager after Frank Robinson Well into the 1950s Doby was the only African American All Star in the American League during a period in which fifteen black players became National League All Stars Why is Doby largely forgotten as a central figure in baseball s integration Why has he not been accorded his rightful place in baseball history Greatness in the Shadows attempts to answer these questions bringing Doby s story to life and sharing his achievements and firsts with a new generation Publisher s website Contemporary Performance Lighting Katherine Graham,Scott Palmer,Kelli Zezulka,2023-01-26 This is the first major collection of critical responses to performance lighting and includes contributions from award winning lighting designers researchers and artists Showcasing recent examples of work with case studies of lighting practices in Britain Europe the US and China combined with theoretical and analytical approaches to practice this will enrich your understanding of the role and potential of light in performance and related creative practices This volume explores three core themes and provides a framework for thinking through the role of light in performance 1 Experience considers both the audience s experience of light and the ways in which light influences the experience of performers 2 Creativity examines both the creative performative capacities of light in performance as well as the creative practices of lighting designers 3 Meaning offers an expanded view of performance aesthetics by examining the capacity of light to influence and generate meaning within performance The case studies are drawn from a wide array of lighting practice including Jennifer Tipton on the role of light as a structural language in performance Jesper Kongshaug on the lighting of Copenhagen s Tivoli Gardens Lucy Carter on her work in installation and dance Psyche Chui on the productive fusion of Western lighting techniques with contemporary Chinese opera Katharine Williams on the role of light in feminist political theatre made by RashDash and Paule Constable on storytelling with light in a range of productions including War Horse The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time and Angels in America The First Geeks Orty
