Shadows of Being Marko Uršič, 2019-01-15 This book is a study of the phenomena of shadows meant in a broader sense as symbolic forms The shadow is a less real surface replica of some more real form From the Platonic point of view empirical objects are shadows of ideas while from the modern natural point of view shadows are seen and conceived primarily as weaker replicas of bodies which give evidence of their material reality In the first three essays here several topics from the Ancient Egypt and Greece to modern arts and sciences are considered while in the fourth essay the contemporary virtual reality cyber technology and the internet as our parallel shadow world are discussed from the philosophical point of view The main and innovative point of this book is the connection between the meaning of shadows in philosophy and art on the one hand and their role in modern science and technology on the other The book will appeal to a wide span of readers from academic circles students and artists to the general reader interested in the humanities especially in philosophy and art

Shadow Lines Lorna Martens,1996-01-01 Intellectual culture in early twentieth century Austria reached levels of originality and excellence that have rarely been equalled before or since Shadow Lines examines works by major novelists dramatists poets and intellectuals of that extraordinary era among them Sigmund Freud Arthur Schnitzler Robert Musil Hugo von Hofmannsthal Rainer Maria Rilke Ludwig Wittgenstein and Franz Kafka Lorna Martens considers how each of these authors contributed to a decisive transformation in Austrian culture involving a shift away from the dialectical syntheses of much nineteenth century German thought and culture to potent unresolvable dualisms of known and unknown orderly and chaotic features of human experience consciousness and the unconscious reason and the irrational language and the inexpressible In most of these writers according to Martens all that is knowable reasonable and orderly is grounded in that which is dark irrational chaotic What Martens calls the dark area emerges variously as the unconscious Freud the sexual drive Freud Schnitzler Musil the death instinct Freud Schnitzler the dangerous chaos below the surface of things Rilke the inaccessible totality von Hofmannsthal or the unsayable Mauthner von Hofmannsthal Musil Wittgenstein The essential yet enigmatic relation between the known and the unknown leads to much that is unsettling and strangely fascinating in these writers works A book that shrewdly relates the works of these authors to the intellectual and political turmoil of the times Shadow Lines is a new critical appraisal of Austrian literature and intellectual culture at the dawn of the century Lorna Martens is anassociate professor in the Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures at the University of Virginia She is the author of The Diary Novel
