Shadows In The Dance:

When Shadows Dance Roxanna Ader, 2011-10-11 Mine is a story of trust inspiration and hope for all women I wrote the story while going through a terrible tragedy in my life A domestic abuse situation Writers often find themselves inspired most by a personal experience As you read this you will see that my deepest feelings seem to have poured out on the pages with such clarity that the reader YOU believes you are right there watching the whole thing unravel I challenge you to see for yourself It s a great fantasy story that bursts forward with excitement funny and thrilling adventures and it has a pleasant conclusion as two lonely people begin to open their hearts First she must learn to trust her puppy who already plays with mysterious shadow s everyday in their home Then she must learn to trust a stranger all over again And then there s the shadows Can TRUST find it s way back to her heart after domestic abuse Shadows in the Dance Evan Winston Reid, 2004
