Columbia University's noted criminologist Alistair Sinclair who offers a startling claim about one of his patients Michael Fromley that the facts of the murder bear an uncanny resemblance to Fromley's deranged mutterings But what would have led Fromley with his history of violent behavior and brutal fantasies to seek out Sarah a notable mathematics student and a proper young lady who has little in common with his previous targets Is Fromley really a murderer or is someone mimicking him This is what Simon Zieles must find out with the help of the brilliant but self-interested Alistair Sinclair before the killer strikes again With this taut atmospheric and original story of a haunted man who must search for a killer while on the run from his own demons Stefanie Pintoff's In the Shadow of Gotham marks the debut of an outstanding new talent the inaugural winner of the Minotaur Books Mystery Writers of America Best First Crime Novel Competition from their homeland or forced into slave labor were murdered in vast numbers both within and outside of the camps Drawing on both German and Polish sources In the Shadow of Auschwitz gives a definitive account of the depredations inflicted upon Polish society tracing the ruthless implementation of a racial ideology that cast ethnic Poles as an inferior race The Violence Mythos Barbara Whitmer,1997-10-02 Presents a powerful thesis on the nature and significance of violence and its mythos in Western culture and offers an alternative interactive mythos that bridges the mind body split inherent in most theories of violence The Violence Mythos presents us with a powerful thesis on the nature and significance of violence in human society It develops its argument with passion and concern combined with a lucid and sensitive intelligence The book is sharp and to the point challenging any complacency with its idealism and its commitment to change Whitmer is an author with attitude and with spirit The violence mythos is a collection of beliefs attitudes behaviors and social expectations about violence in Western culture It includes the war hero myth the victimizer victim exploitative dynamic the theory of innate violence the mind body dualism the myth of male aggression and the subordination of women the marginalization of trust and the development of technology in a tradition of destructive instrumentalism At the core of the violence mythos is the belief that humans are innately violent The cultural system is then able to legitimate rationalize and use violence to control violent humans and thus becomes a self reinforcing self perpetuating system of direct and indirect means of social control This is the repetitive cycle of violence in trauma reenactment transferred intergenerationally through the roles and rituals of the hero perpetrator myth The cycle ceases with the understanding of trauma in the trust triad of the interdependent mythos
