The Poetics of Gardens Charles W.

Moore, William John Mitchell, William Turnbull (Jr.), 1988 This is an entirely different garden book a pattern book in which a score of landscapes and gardens are drawn described and analyzed not just as a bouquet of pleasures but as sources lodes to be mined for materials shapes and relationships and ideas for transforming our own backyards There is a universality about the creation of gardens across time and in diverse cultures that has inspired this entirely different garden book a playful and affectionate typology of gardens a pattern book in which a score of landscapes and gardens are drawn described and analyzed not just as a bouquet of pleasures but as sources lodes to be mined for materials shapes and relationships and ideas for transforming our own backyards The Poetics of Gardens is a celebration of places and the gardens they can become Most of the 500 sketches axonometric drawings and photographs were created especially for this book They explore the special qualities of places and the acts that can transform them into gardens The authors discuss the qualities that create the promise of a garden the shapes of land and water the established plants the light and wind the climate and show how these can be organized to give a place a special meaning And they pay particular attention to the rituals of habitation by which we imaginatively take possession of places on the surface of the earth The Poetics of Gardens examines great gardens made in other places with other climates at other times from ancient Rome to modern England from Ball to Botany Bay from the court of Chien Lung to the magic kingdom of Walt Disney to explore their devices and record their images scents and sounds The authors discuss the adaptation of the great garden traditions of the past to North American soil and call together the creators of these gardens to speculate about how their patterns and ideas can be appropriated transformed and composed into places that come alive for us

Prehistory of the Paximadi Peninsula, Euboea Tracey Cullen, William R. Farrandy, Lia

Karamali, Donald R. Keller, Lauren E. Talalay, 2013-10-15 The results of two related fieldwork projects are presented a brief salvage excavation at Plakari a Final Neolithic site near the modern town of Karystos and a survey of prehistoric sites on the Paximadi peninsula the western arm of the Karystos bay both located in southern Euboea These ventures were part of the larger mission of the Southern Euboea Exploration Project SEEP a multidisciplinary research program dedicated to the study of the Karystian past and which maintained a presence in southern Euboea for over 25 years These projects have found that contrary to what archaeologists once believed southern Euboea was hardly an uninhabited and isolated region in prehistory The inhabitants actively participated in the expanded maritime and social landscape that characterized the later Neolithic and Early Bronze Age in the Aegean taking part in exchange networks of stone ceramics marble figurines and vessels and possibly agricultural goods and metalwork

Shadow Empires Thomas J. Barfield, 2025-12-02 An original study of empire creation and its consequences from ancient through early modern times The world's first great empires established by the ancient Persians Chinese and Romans are well known but not the empires that emerged on their margins in response to them over the course of 2 500 years These counterempires or shadow empires which changed the course of history include the imperial nomad confederacies that arose in Mongolia and extorted resources from China rather than attempting to conquer it as well as maritime empires such as ancient Athens that controlled trade without seeking territorial hegemony In Shadow Empires Thomas Barfield identifies six kinds of counterempire and explores their rise politics economics and longevity What all these counterempires had in common was their interactions with existing empires that created the conditions for their development When highly successful these counterempires left the shadows to become the world s largest empires for example those of the medieval Muslim Arabs and of the Mongol heirs of Chinggis Khan Three former shadow empires Manchu Qing China Tsarist Russia and British India made this transformation in the late eighteenth century and came to rule most of Eurasia However the DNA of their origins endured in their unique ruling strategies Indeed world powers still use these strategies today long after their roots in shadow empires have been forgotten Looking afresh at the histories of important types of empires that are often ignored Shadow Empires provides an original account of empire formation from the ancient world to the early modern period Black Athena Martin Bernal,2020-02-14 Black Athena an audacious three volume series strikes at the heart of today s most heated culture wars Martin Bernal challenges Eurocentric attitudes by calling into question conventional explanations for the origins of classical civilization Provocative passionate and colossal in scope this thoughtful rewriting of history continues to stir academic and political controversy Black Athena Martin Bernal,2008 Letter correspondences P 731 739

Narratives of Nothing in 20th-Century Literature Meghan Vicks,2015-10-22 The concept of nothing was an enduring concern of the 20th century As Martin Heidegger and Jean Paul Sartre each positioned nothing as inseparable from the human condition and essential to the creation or operation of human existence as Jacques Derrida demonstrated how all structures are built upon a nothing within the structure and as mathematicians argued that zero the number that is also not a number allows for the creation of our modern mathematical system Narratives of Nothing in 20th Century Literature suggests that nothing itself enables the act of narration Focusing on the literary works of Vladimir Nabokov Samuel Beckett and Victor Pelevin Meghan Vicks traces how and why these writers give narrative form to nothing demonstrating that nothing is essential to the creation of narrative that is how our perceptions are conditioned how we make meaning or madness out of the stuff of our existence how we craft our knowable selves and how we exist in language

The Shadow Puppets of Istanbul Angela Ruiz,2024-12-17 From the ashes of war torn Aleppo to the vibrant chaos of Istanbul Darina Maalouf a Syrian refugee clings to the ancient art of shadow puppetry as her only solace Haunted by loss she finds refuge in a forgotten storefront transforming it into the G lge Evi the Shadow House where flickering candlelight illuminates not just her translucent puppets but also the depths of her resilience But in a city teeming with a thousand stories hers struggles to be heard Then drawn by the ethereal music and the mesmerizing play of light and shadow a shy Turkish boy named Levent Demirkan hesitates at the entrance to the G lge Evi His stutter binds him yet the magic of the puppets beckons him closer Levent carries his own legacy of loss the forgotten art of his renowned puppeteer grandfather In Darina he finds a kindred spirit and in their shared passion a bridge across cultures Together they weave a tapestry of stories blending Syrian folklore with the ancient wit of Karag z and Hacivat the beloved characters of Turkish shadow puppetry Their performances become a vibrant hub of cultural exchange captivating locals tourists and fellow refugees alike As their fame grows so does the attention of Murat Y lmaz a charismatic politician with a dangerous agenda He sees in Darina s art a tool for his own ambition promising protection while subtly twisting her narratives to serve his purpose Caught in a web of political intrigue Darina and Levent must choose between compromise and defiance Their art once a refuge becomes a battlefield where shadows dance with dissent challenging the very powers that threaten to silence them In a climactic performance they unveil a powerful allegory of displacement and resilience igniting a spark of resistance that echoes far beyond the confines of their small theatre From the bustling marketplaces to the shadowy corridors of power The Shadow Puppets of Istanbul is a story of exile and belonging of loss and hope and the enduring power of art to transcend borders and ignite the human spirit

Gallipoli Diary 1915 Alec Riley, 2021-11-11 We had a look around through periscopes at the remains of recent fighting The dead were on top and we the living were below the general ground level The usual order of life and death were reversed So wrote Alec Riley in his account of an ordinary soldier in an extraordinary conflict the Gallipoli campaign of 1915 A signaller with the 42nd East Lancashire Division Riley was well placed to serve as an eyewitness to the sharp end of the campaign being with the infantry but not of it His task and that of the small unit he served with and whose story he tells was to maintain communications between the forward trenches and senior commanders in the rear a conduit for at times unrealistic orders one way and all too real situation reports the other During his time on the peninsula Riley kept meticulous notes which form the basis of this account He also took his camera to war the resulting photos some of which were used in the British official history of the campaign flesh out his detailed story of life in and behind the lines After four months on the peninsula suffering from jaundice septic sores and dysentery Riley was evacuated sick destined first for Mudros and then Blighty He made sure to save his diary and camera Although Gallipoli had done for Riley Riley was not done with Gallipoli Even while on the peninsula he and his comrades had looked beyond the war We tried to imagine what the place would be like when the armies had gone Achi Baba would be green again the trenches would fall in and flatten communication trenches through which thousands of men had passed would be long and shallow depressions and frogs and tortoises the only inhabitants of gully and nullah Remarkably Alec Riley returned to find out revisiting the peninsula at least twice In 1930 he spent ten days wandering across the now overgrown fields of battle on a lone pilgrimage revisiting places he knew intimately 15 years before This pilgrimage and a subsequent second visit was intended to form the basis of a book again illustrated with his trusty camera Sadly the original manuscript has been lost But the editors have identified two extracts that appeared in print which they present alongside a faithful transcript of Riley s diary and notes Also included is an unpublished introduction by General Sir Ian Hamilton commander of the Mediterranean Expeditionary Force of which Riley had been a small part and with whom Riley had a decade long correspondence The editors of the diary Michael Crane and Bernard de Broglie have added copious footnotes and detailed biographical notes on the officers and men who come to life in Riley s writings as well as an order of battle and summary of arms for the 42nd Division at Gallipoli Fourteen maps illustrate the actions large and small that Riley describes alongside 47 black and white photographs most showing the battlefield in 1915 and 1930 Gallipoli Diary 1915 will appeal to readers of WW1 and military history but especially to those with an interest in the Gallipoli campaign It will be bookended by two further diaries that record Alec Riley s mobilisation and training in Egypt and his time in the Royal Victoria Hospital Netley Collectively they offer a unique window into the experiences of a pre war Territorial soldier before during and after Gallipoli
