Levrini, Giulia Tasquier, Tamer G. Amin, Laura Branchetti, Mariana Levin, 2021-09-24 This book starts with the premise that beauty can be an engine of transformation and authentic engagement in an increasingly complex world It presents an organized picture of highlights from the 13th European Science Education Research Association Conference ESERA 2019 held in Bologna Italy The collection includes contributions that discuss contemporary issues such as climate change multiculturalism and the flourishing of new interdisciplinary areas of investigation including the application of cognitive neuroscience artificial intelligence and digital humanities to science education research It also highlights learners difficulties engaging with socio scientific issues in a digital and post truth era The volume demonstrates that deepening our understanding is the preferred way to address these challenges and that science education has a key role to play in this effort In particular the book advances the argument that the deep and novel character of these challenges requires a collective search for new narratives and languages an expanding knowledge base and new theoretical perspectives and methods of research The book provides a contemporary picture of science education research and looks to the theoretical and practical societal challenges of the future ICarBS. , 1976 U.S. Geological Survey Professional Paper , 1967 Research
