The Shadow-Line Joseph Conrad, 2020-12-08 A new captain must lead his crew to safety and face his own internal struggles as he works to overcome disrespect insanity and coming of age all while sailing on an unforgiving sea There is an invisible line that divides life into a before and after adolescence and adulthood The unnamed narrator of The Shadow Line is painfully aware of this but is unsure where the line lies in his life He recalls a number of rash decisions he has made some more recent than others Soon after he impulsively quits his comfortable job as a shipmate the narrator meets two men who each test him in different ways Captain Giles a wise patient man tries to be a positive influence on the narrator Hamilton a snobby man with a sour attitude is able to invoke anger as if he were trying to win an Olympic medal for it This ignites the narrator s poor relationship with irritation as he has the tendency to lash out with hostility at even mild annoyances Consequently The narrator gets into pointless feuds When he is offered a new job as a captain controlling a ship and crew Giles attempts to guide him and nurture the admirable and necessary qualities of a leader including encouraging the narrator to manage his anger However once the narrator boards his new ship and meets his new crew including the previous captain the lessons he learned from Giles are immediately challenged Now facing disrespect heightened responsibility and the perils of the sea all with his pride at stake the narrator must navigate where he stands in relation to his own shadow line and whether he will keep the habits of his youth or grow into the man he needs to be The Shadow Line by Joseph Conrad explores important and relatable themes of the internal conflicts everyone must confront as they age Drawn from his own life experience Conrad depicts the sea setting with vivid imagery and unmatched detail With mysterious and complex characters The Shadow Line depicts the universal struggles of the transition between life s phases set to an intriguing and thrilling setting Joseph Conrad s The Shadow Line is now available with a new eye catching cover design and is reprinted in a modern font creating an approachable reading experience for a contemporary audience
