Shake Hands With The Devil:

Shake Hands With the Devil Romeo Dallaire, 2009-02-24 On the tenth anniversary of the date that UN peacekeepers landed in Rwanda Random House Canada is proud to publish the unforgettable first hand account of the genocide by the man who led the UN mission Digging deep into shattering memories General Dallaire has written a powerful story of betrayal na vet racism and international politics His message is simple and undeniable Never again When Lt Gen Rom o Dallaire received the call to serve as force commander of the UN intervention in Rwanda in 1993 he thought he was heading off on a modest and straightforward peacekeeping mission Thirteen months later he flew home from Africa broken disillusioned and suicidal having witnessed the slaughter of 800 000 Rwandans in only a hundred days In Shake Hands with the Devil he takes the reader with him on a return voyage into the hell of Rwanda vividly recreating the events the international community turned its back on This book is an unsparing eyewitness account of the failure by humanity to stop the genocide despite timely warnings Woven through the story of this disastrous mission is Dallaire s own journey from confident Cold Warrior to devastated UN commander to retired general engaged in a painful struggle to find a measure of peace reconciliation and hope This book is General Dallaire s personal account of his conversion from a man certain of his worth and secure in his assumptions to a man conscious of his own weaknesses and failures and critical of the institutions he d relied on It might not sit easily with standard ideas of military leadership but understanding what happened to General Dallaire and his mission to Rwanda is crucial to understanding the moral minefields our peacekeepers are forced to negotiate when we ask them to step into the world s dirty wars Excerpt from Shake Hands with the Devil My story is not a strictly military account nor a clinical academic study of the breakdown of Rwanda It is not a simplistic indictment of the many failures of the UN as a force for peace in the world It is not a story of heroes and villains although such a work could easily be written This book is a cri de coeur for the slaughtered thousands a tribute to the souls hacked apart by machetes because of their supposed difference from those who sought to hang on to power This book is the account of a few humans who were entrusted with the role of helping others taste the fruits of peace Instead we watched as the devil took control of paradise on earth and fed on the blood of the people we were supposed to protect significance of such films as Irish Destiny The Quiet Man Ryan's Daughter Man of Aran Cal The Courier and The Dead

Unbecoming Nationalism Helene Vosters, 2019-09-04 Canada's recent sesquicentennial celebrations were the latest in a long steady progression of Canadian cultural memory projects Unbecoming Nationalism investigates the power of commemorative performances in the production of nationalist narratives Using unbecoming as a theoretical framework to unsettle or decolonize nationalist narratives Helene Vosters examines an eclectic range of both state sponsored social memory projects and counter memorial projects to reveal and unravel the threads connecting reverential military commemoration celebratory cultural nationalism and white settler colonial nationalism Vosters brings readings of institutional aesthetic and activist performances of Canadian military commemoration settler colonial nationalism and redress into conversation with literature that examines the relationship between memory violence and nationalism from the disciplinary arenas of performance studies Canadian studies critical race and Indigenous studies memory studies and queer and gender studies In addition to using performance as a theoretical framework Vosters uses performance to enact a philosophy of praxis and embodied theory Empire Films and the Crisis of Colonialism, 1946-1959 Jon Cowans, 2015-05-15 The first transnational history of cinema's role in decolonization Using popular cinema from the United States Britain and France Empire Films and the Crisis of Colonialism 1946-1959 examines postwar Western attitudes toward colonialism and race relations Historians have written much about the high politics of decolonization but little about what ordinary citizens thought about losing their empires Popular cinema provided the main source of images of the colonies and according to Jon Cowans in this far reaching book films depicting the excesses of empire helped Westerners come to terms with decolonization and even promoted the dismantling of colonialism around the globe Examining more than one hundred British French and American films from the post World War II era Cowans concentrates on movies that depict interactions between white colonizers and nonwhite colonial subjects including sexual and romantic relations Although certain conservative films eagerly supported colonialism Cowans argues that the more numerous liberal colonialist productions undermined support for key aspects of colonial rule while a few more provocative films openly favored anticolonial movements and urged internal decolonization for people of color in Britain France and the United States Combining new archival research on the films production with sharp analysis of their imagery and political messages the book also assesses their reception through box office figures and newspaper reviews It examines both high profile and lesser known films on overseas colonialism including The King and I Bhowani Junction and Island in the Sun and tackles treatments of miscegenation and internal colonialism that appeared in Westerns and American films like Pinky and Giant The first truly transnational history of cinema's role in decolonization this powerful book weaves a unified historical narrative out of the experiences of three colonial powers in diverse geographic settings William Alwyn Ian Johnson, 2005 Ian Johnson's evaluation of Alwyn's film music places his achievement in the context of wider movements within the film industry William Alwyn was a leading composer of British film music in the 1940s and 50s a time when the British film industry was at its peak His scores ranged from documentaries to almost 80 full length feature films including classics such as Fires were Started Desert Victory Odd Man Out The Fallen Idol and The History of Mr Polly he was adept at any musical genre from classical to cartoon slapstick and in the process worked with legendary directors including Carol Reed David Lean Humphrey Jennings and Anthony Asquith Alone with Vaughan Williams he was granted the distinction of a separate title credit columnists mentioned him alongside Bliss Bax and Walton However as the reputation of the British film industry declined in the 1950s so musical snobbery against those who were its leading lights became unpleasantly raw In recent years however with sensitive performances of his film and concert music available on CD this most appealing of composers has enjoyed something of a renaissance In this long overdue reassessment Alwyn's films are analysed and put into the context of his biography the film industry and of society at large the author shows in particular this remarkably versatile composer developed a hitherto unrecognised grammar of film music which enhanced every film on which he worked He also examines his work for war propaganda radio and the concert hall The volume is enhanced by the most complete filmography discography and bibliography of the composer's works yet published as well as listings of his concert and radio music

The Rwandan Genocide on Film Matthew Edwards, 2018-07-09 The Rwandan genocide was one of the most shameful events of the 20th century Many Westerners understanding of it is based upon the Oscar winning film Hotel Rwanda and the critically acclaimed Shooting Dogs Yet how accurately do these films depict events in Rwanda in 1994 Drawing on new scholarship this collection of essays explores a variety of feature films and documentaries about the genocide to understand its expression in both Western and Rwandan cinema Interviews with filmmakers are featured including journalist Steve Bradshaw BBC's Panorama director Nick Hughes 100 Days director Lee Isaac Chung Munyurangabo and Rwandan filmmakers Eric Kabera and Kivu Ruhorahoza
