Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1957 Reception and Renewal in Modern Spanish Theatre, 1939-1963 John London, 1997 The book constitutes the first attempt to provide an overview of the reception of foreign drama in Spain during the Franco dictatorship John London analyses performance stage design translation censorship and critical reviews in relation to the works of many authors including Noel Coward Arthur Miller Eugene Ionesco and Samuel Beckett He compares the original reception of these dramatists with the treatment they were given in Spain However his study is also a reassessment of the Spanish drama of the period Dr London argues that only by tracing the reception of non Spanish drama can we understand the praise lavished on playwrights such as Antonio Buero Vallejo and Alfonso Sastre alongside the simultaneous rejection of Spanish avant garde styles A concluding reinterpretation of the early plays of Fernando Arrabal indicates the richness of an alternative route largely ignored in histories of Spanish theatre

Edinburgh Companion to Twentieth-Century Literatures in English Brian McHale, 2006-06-28 An imaginatively constructed new literary history of the twentieth century This companion with a difference sets a controversial new agenda for literary historical analysis Far from the usual forced march through the decades genres and national literatures this reference work for the new century cuts across familiar categories focusing instead on literary hot spots Freud's Vienna and Conrad's Congo in 1899 Chicago and London in 1912 the Somme in July 1916 Dublin London and Harlem in 1922 and so on down to Bradford and Berlin in 1989 the fatwa against Salman Rushdie the new digital media Stockholm in 1993 Toni Morrison's Nobel Prize and September 11 2001

Pinter and Stoppard Carey Perloff, 2022-02-24 Shortlisted for the STR Theatre Book Prize 2023 A LA Times best theater book of 2022 Harold Pinter and Tom Stoppard by most accounts the leading British playwrights of our time might seem to come from very different aesthetic cultural and political worlds But as Carey Perloff's fascinating new book reveals the two have much in common By examining these contemporaries alongside one another and in the context of the rehearsal room we can glean new insights and connections including the impact of their Jewish background on their work and their passion for the details of stagecraft Readers of Pinter and Stoppard A Director's View will emerge with a set of tools for approaching their work in a performance environment and for unlocking the mysteries of the plays for audiences Esteemed theatre director Carey Perloff draws upon her first hand experience of working with both writers creating case studies of particular plays in production to provide new ways of positioning the work today 30 years after major criticism on both playwrights first emerged this is a ripe moment for a fresh examination of the unique contribution of Pinter and Stoppard in the twenty first century
