Overlooking something crucial i.e. friendship it appears that our societies are ignoring the importance of friendship. The philosophy behind Worthy a Friend is to help the world appreciate the reality that in poverty and other misfortunes of life true friends are a sure refuge. It keeps the young out of mischief, it comforts and aids the old in their weakness and it incites those in the prime of life to noble deeds. Friendship is vital for wellbeing and it is the only glue that can stick the world together yet it takes time to develop and can't be artificially created. Worth A Friend recommends carrying out personal friendship audits in order to recognize which friendships provide important things one needs then to sharpen each friendship in line with its strength. It discusses how close friendship can be a mirror of your own self; it adds that friendship is also important in politics and business because it cultivates the virtues such as creativity and compassion which are essential to a flourishing society. It concludes that if we cultivate friendship we can lift some of the burden from our apparently unhappy isolated selves.
