Bartlett, 2014-10-23 This updated version of Humanism and the Northern Renaissance now includes over 60 documents exploring humanist and Renaissance ideals the zeal of religion and the wealth of the new world Together the sources illuminate the chaos and brilliance of the historical period as well as its failures and inconsistencies The reader has been thoroughly revised to meet the needs of the undergraduate classroom Over 30 historical documents have been added including material by Martin Luther John Calvin John Knox William Shakespeare Christopher Columbus Miguel de Cervantes and Galileo Galilei In the introduction Bartlett and McGlynn identify humanism as the central expression of the European Renaissance and explain how this idea migrated from Italy to northern Europe The editors also emphasize the role of the church and Christianity in northern Europe and detail the events leading up to the Reformation A short essay on how to read historical documents is included Each reading is preceded by a short introduction and ancillary materials can be found on UTP s History Matters website www.utphistorymatters.com Colonization of the New world Ferdinand Justi, Sara Yorke Stevenson, Morris Jastrow (Jr.), 1905 The World Health Organization between North and South Nitsan Chorev, 2012-05-01 Since 1948 the World Health Organization WHO has launched numerous programs aimed at improving health conditions around the globe ranging from efforts to eradicate smallpox to education programs about the health risks of smoking In setting global health priorities and carrying out initiatives the WHO bureaucracy has faced the challenge of reconciling the preferences of a small minority of wealthy nations who fund the organization with the demands of poorer member countries who hold the majority of votes In The World Health Organization between North and South Nitsan Chorev shows how the WHO bureaucracy has succeeded not only in avoiding having its agenda co opted by either coalition of member states but also in reaching a consensus that fit the bureaucracy s own principles and interests Chorev assesses the response of the WHO bureaucracy to member state pressure in two particularly contentious moments when during the 1970s and early 1980s developing countries forcefully called for a more equal international economic order and when in the 1990s the United States and other wealthy countries demanded international organizations adopt neoliberal economic reforms In analyzing these two periods Chorev demonstrates how strategic maneuvering made it possible for a vulnerable bureaucracy to preserve a relatively autonomous agenda promote a consistent set of values and protect its interests in the face of challenges from developing and developed countries alike
