Spoils of War in the Arab East Aziz Al-Azmeh, Harout Akdedian, Haian Dukhan, 2024-01-11 Post conflict scenarios are often proposed for Arab countries that have witnessed significant changes and civil wars Yet the plans for reconciliation transitional justice and the return of the displaced often overlook the real conditions that make these recommendations impossible This book provides a critical analysis of current post conflict frameworks for Syria and Iraq Drawing on empirical research the book shows that reconciliation and reconstruction scenarios need to be considered alongside the realities on the ground It argues that Iraq and Syria exist in a condition of conflict transformation rather than of conflict termination because the extreme changes that accompanied these countries into war continue long after the conflicts end Furthermore the chapters highlight why experts should not seek solutions in culturalist terms and ancestral enmities or rely on the wartime status quo Rather they should look to the specific military political economic and socio cultural conditions that require different solutions A critical analysis of existing post conflict frameworks their applicability and their potential outcomes in Iraq and Syria the book is a vital contribution to post conflict studies It highlights the need for new approaches to reconstruction and peacebuilding in Arab countries and points to how they should be found

The Middle Eastern Village Richard Lawless, 2023-05-31 Rapid and uneven change to the fabric of rural life is widespread in modern Middle Eastern countries Modernisation usually in the Western model has often brought major improvements in agricultural technology education and public health but has also had the effect of weakening the traditional rural economy of many villages and encouraging their growing dependence on external sources of income most notably oil remittances This collection of research on the Middle Eastern village looks at the impact on rural life and environment of such factors as the mass exodus of labour to urban centres emigration immigration environmental change and the changing role of women in rural communities particularly the wives of migrant workers who have to fill a new role in the family structure State sponsored agrarian policies have weakened the power of traditional landed interests and together with labour migration have provoked new tension and inequalities in rural society The book makes clear that the pattern of change has been highly uneven and has served to heterogenise the countryside As the oil states enter a period of recession and the likelihood of substantial return migration increases rural communities will need to make further major adjustments and the book examines the tensions this new development is likely to produce First published in 1987
