Lowry's City Judith Sandling, Michael Leber, 2000 Photographer Len Grant has visited each location and photographed its current appearance revealing both the sites that remain redolent of Lowry's painting and those that have changed beyond recognition BOOK JACKET City of Capital and Labour Tom Saunders, 2025-08-15 This compelling book explores the evolution of industrial Manchester offering a fresh perspective on its built environment through the lens of architecture archaeology and social history Richly illustrated and designed for both academic and general audiences it sheds new light on Manchester's transformation during the Industrial Revolution highlighting how the city's physical form shaped and was shaped by its socio economic and cultural dynamics By analysing architectural styles building types land use and spatial relationships the study identifies distinct phases of development from the early eighteenth to early twentieth century It delves into how Manchester's material landscape mediated industrialisation and social tensions reflecting the emergence of both bourgeois and proletarian communities The book argues that the city's evolving physical structure was deeply intertwined with the capitalist logic of class relations where architecture and urban spaces became arenas for competing social identities Through mapping the enduring physical traces of these changes and using a Marxist lens to examine shifting power structures in cities the book underscores Manchester's role as a microcosm of industrial and urban transformation It invites readers to rediscover the city's industrial heritage emphasising the importance of its historic buildings in understanding the socio economic forces that shaped modern urban life before they are irrevocably altered by contemporary redevelopment British Art and the Environment Charlotte Gould, Sophie Mesplède, 2021-07-21 This book explores the nature of Britain based artists engagement with the transformations of their environment since the early days of the Industrial Revolution At a time of pressing ecological concerns the international group of contributors provide a series of case studies that reconsider the nature culture divide and aim at identifying the contours of a national narrative that stretches from enclosed lands to rising seas By adopting a longer historical view this book hopes to enrich current debates concerning art's engagement with recording and questioning the impact of human activity on the environment The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history contemporary art environmental humanities and British studies Thinking Northern, 2007-01-01 Thinking Northern offers new approaches to the processes of identity formation which are taking place in the diverse fields of cultural economic and social activity in contemporary Britain The essays collected in this volume discuss the changing physiognomy of Northern England and provide a mosaic of recent thought and new critical thinking about the textures of regional identity in Britain Looking at the historical origin of Northern identities and at current attitudes to them the book explores the way received mental images about the North are re deployed and re contained in the ever changing socio cultural set up of society in Northern England The contributors address representation of Northernness in such diverse fields as the music scene multicultural spaces the heritage industries new architecture the arts literature and
