Escaping the Racism of Low Expectations Barbara from Harlem, 2018-05-15 I was a liberal by default I asked no questions I had no answers I just pulled the lever to vote for Democrats as was expected of me Most of my fellow Black Americans do not fully understand what the term liberal means or who or what they are voting for And in turn they don't realize how harmful those liberal policies are to our freedoms and liberties as Americans I was born into a culture that believes Black equals Democrat A broken home failed marriage and a feeling of victimization fueled my need for inclusion which the Democratic Party fulfilled As an activist and member of the NAACP and Democratic Clubs in Harlem the men I looked up to the Rev Jesse Jackson whom I also campaigned for Congressman Charlie Rangel and Rev Al Sharpton reinforced the negative perceptions that shaped my world But just like false prophets the false narrative that has been spoon fed to us by Black leaders the Black community the media and progressive politicians has enslaved Blacks in a victimhood mentality and entitlement mindset But my eyes were opened to reject victimhood and lack of accountability My journey has proven to me that when you have clarity of conscience love of God and a deep seated belief in America's goodness your life will be enriched and your focus will change to one of accountability

Laura Ugolini,2021-04-01 This book explores the relationship between middle class fathers and sons in England between c 1870 and 1920 We now know that the conventional image of the middle class paterfamilias of this period as cold and authoritarian is too simplistic but there is still much to be discovered about relationships in middle class families Paying especial attention to gender and masculinities this book focuses on the interactions between fathers and sons exploring how relationships developed and masculine identities were negotiated from infancy and childhood to adulthood and old age Drawing on sources as diverse as autobiographies oral history interviews First World War conscription records and press reports of violent incidents this book questions how fathers and sons negotiated relationships marked by shifting relations of power as well as by different combinations of emotional entanglements obligations and ties It explores changes as fathers and sons grew older and assesses fathers role in trying to mould sons masculine identities characters and lives It reveals negotiation and compromise as well as rebellion and conflict underlining that fathers and sons were important to each other their relationships a significant if often overlooked aspect of middle class men s lives and identities Low Life - Irreverent Reflections from the Bottom of a Glass Jeffrey Bernard, 2019-11-28 Described as the Tony Hancock of journalism for forty years Bernard wrote only about himself and the failures of his life with women drink doctors horses which have become legendary Low Life is an irresistible collection of the best of Bernard s celebrated autobiographical contributions to The Spectator once described as a suicide note in weekly instalments Previously published in two volumes entitled Low Life A Kind of Autobiography and Reach for the Ground these books are now available in a single volume containing all his derisive reflections on life Antiauthoritarian grumpy charming politically incorrect funny drunk and always mischievous Bernard could usually be found at the Coach and Horses pub on London s Greek street a lit cigarette in his mouth and a drink in hand He was joined by famous friends including Francis Bacon Lucian Freud Graham Green Peter O Toole Ian Fleming and many others and their conversations as well as with whomever was tending bar at the time served as the basis for his writing There were in fact times when he was too drunk to write hence the famous unwell notice that went next to the large hastily sketched cartoon that filled its space in the magazine The Political History of England ...: Low, S. & L.C. Sanders. The reign of Queen Victoria (1837-1901) William Hunt, Reginald Lane Poole, 1907

The Survival of the Jesuits in the Low Countries, 1773-1850 Leo Kenis, Marc Lindeijer, 2019-12-20 How the Jesuits re emerged after forty years of suppression In 1773 Pope Clement XIV suppressed the Society of Jesus For the 823 Jesuits living in the Low Countries it meant the end of their institutional religious life In the Austrian Netherlands the Jesuits were put under strict surveillance but in the Dutch Republic they were able to continue their missionary work It is this regional contrast and the opportunities it offered for the Order to survive that make the Low Countries an exceptional and interesting case in Jesuit history Just as in White Russia former Jesuits and new Jesuits in the Low Countries prepared for the restoration of the Order with the help of other religious priests and lay benefactors In 1814 eight days before the restoration of the Society by Pope Pius VII the novitiate near Ghent opened with eleven candidates from all over the United Netherlands Barely twenty years later the Order in the Low Countries by then counting one hundred members formed an independent Belgian Province A separate Dutch Province followed in 1850 Obviously the reestablishment with new churches and new colleges carried a heavy survival burden in the face of their old enemies and the black legends they revived the Jesuits had to retrieve their true identity which had been suppressed for forty years Contributors Peter van Dael SJ Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam Joep van Gennip Tilburg School of Catholic Theology Michel Hermans SJ University of Namur Marek Inglot SJ Pontifical Gregorian University Rome Frank Judo lawyer Brussels Leo Kenis KU Leuven Marc Lindeijer SJ Bollandist Society Brussels Jo Luyten KADOC KU Leuven Kristien Suenens KADOC KU Leuven Vincent Verbrugge historian Seeing High and Low Patricia Johnston, 2006-06-14 Publisher Description The Art and Science of Reminiscing Jeffrey D. Webster, Barbara Haight, 2013-02-01 Although recognition of reminiscing as a potentially adaptive process can be traced back over 30 years to the seminal work of Robert Butler as discussed in the Foreword there has been little effort to consolidate the work and paint a complete picture of reminiscing as an entity Here reminiscing is presented as a multi disciplinary topic examining the theory of and research on reminiscing The book also discusses the different ways of conducting life review interviews and explores therapeutic applications Contributors to this book many of whom are pioneers and leading figures in the field discuss and elaborate their latest thinking and research findings from multiple perspectives The volume s strength derives from its multi disciplinary nursing psychiatry psychology gerontology community advocacy and multinational Australia Canada England Sweden and the United States treatment James Birren Irene Burnside and Phillipe Cappeliez are a few of the eminent scholars authoring this volume Wild Geese John S.
