In the Fray David P. Gushee,2014-05-12 In the Fray collects David Gushee s most significant essays over twenty years as a Christian intellectual Most of the essays were written in situations of ethical conflict on the highly contested ground of Christian public ethics Topics addressed include torture climate change marriage and divorce the treatment of gays and lesbians in the church war genocide nuclear weapons race global poverty faith and politics Israel Palestine and even whether Christian ethics is a real academic discipline Quite visible in the collection is Gushee s deep research interest in the Nazi era in Germany and how the churches fared in resisting Nazi intimidations and seductions and finally the Holocaust All essays reflect the desire for a church that has learned the lessons of that period a church with resistance to racism militarism nationalism and other social ideological toxins and with the discernment and courage to resist these in favor of a courageous allegiance to the lordship of Christ at the time of testing Considerable attention is directed to contesting some of the public ethics found in the author s own US evangelical Christian community Concluding reflections on Gushee s ethical vision are offered in an illuminating essay by senior Christian ethicist Glen Harold Stassen

Faithful Politics Miranda Zapor Cruz,2024-08-20 Christians who share similar faith convictions can arrive at different political conclusions In this nonpartisan overview Miranda Zapor Cruz shares ten theological approaches Christians throughout history have used to navigate political participation helping us form a vision of faithful citizenship in an increasingly polarized society

The Welsh Outlook ,1926 The Cambridge Review ,1899 Missionary Messengers of Liberation in a Colonial Context Jan Harm Boer,2024-10-21 Religious Telescope ,1901 Baptist Commonwealth ,1909 Kingdom Politics Kristopher Norris,Sam Speers,2015-04-16 American Christians weary of decades of entrenched partisan feuding are increasingly distancing themselves from politics Some however continue to turn toward the state and public policy to find solutions to the world s problems The problem is that both responses allow a narrow vision of politics to determine the church s mission and ministries which often ends up separating its commitment to personal faith from the pursuit of social justice the King from the kingdom Christians too easily forget that the church is inherently political a community defined by its allegiance to a King its citizenship in a new world and its call to work alongside others in pursuit of a new way of life The church needs a political vision that is more than blind acceptance or mere rejection of past models It needs a positive vision that takes its cues about politics not from the nation state but from another political reality the kingdom of God This book tells the stories of the visits of two researchers to five diverse congregations across the United States From the megachurch energy of Rick Warren s Saddleback Church in California to a young Emergent community in

Minneapolis to the politically active home of Martin Luther King in Atlanta these stories illuminate the vastly different ways congregations understand and approach politics and offer a glimpse of a new political imagination for today's church
