Serious Minds Richard McLauchlan, 2022-10-06 The Times hailed Richard Burdon Haldane as one of the most powerful intellects British statesmanship had ever seen His brother John a great physiologist invented the first gas masks used in World War One Their sister Elizabeth was among the first women to become a senior public servant Their mother Mary friend and advisor to top politicians and churchmen nurtured these exceptional minds Mary's grandchildren swapped her traditional roots for radical socialism but continued the brilliant family legacy Naomi Mitchison was a doyenne of Scottish literature one Nobel prizewinner called her brother the geneticist J B S Haldane the cleverest man I ever knew Like the Darwins and Keyneses this clan of thinkers lived in rapidly changing times and helped to remake the world around them Drawing on extensive family interviews and previously unseen private papers Serious Minds details scandal tragedy and achievement within a dynasty that shaped modern Britain from the welfare state education system and military to our understanding of energy the human body and the origins of life itself

Animal Crisis Alice Crary, Lori Gruen, 2022-05-20 Leading philosophers Alice Crary and Lori Gruen offer a searing and desperately needed response to systems of thought and action that are failing animals and ultimately humans too In the wake of global pandemics mass extinctions habitat destruction and catastrophic climate change they issue a clarion call to address the intertwined problems we face arguing that we must radically reimagine our relationships with other animals In stark contrast to traditional theories in animal ethics which abstract from social mechanisms harmful to human beings Animal Crisis makes the case that there can be no animal liberation without human emancipation Borrowing from critical theories such as ecofeminism Crary and Gruen present a critical animal theory for understanding and combating the structural forces that enable the diminishment of so many to the advantage of a few With seven case studies of complex human animal relations they make an urgent plea to dismantle the human supremacism that is devastating animal lives and hurtling us toward ecocide
