Ferriss-Hill,2015-02-26 Quintilian famously claimed that satire was tota nostra or totally ours but this innovative volume demonstrates that many of Roman satire's most distinctive characteristics derived from ancient Greek Old Comedy Jennifer L Ferriss Hill analyzes the writings of Lucilius Horace and Persius highlighting the features that they crafted on the model of Aristophanes and his fellow poets the authoritative yet compromised author the self referential discussions of poetics that vacillate between defensive and aggressive the deployment of personal invective in the service of literary polemics and the abiding interest in criticizing individuals types and language itself The first book length study in English on the relationship between Roman satire and Old Comedy Roman Satire and the Old Comic Tradition will appeal to students and researchers in classics comparative literature and English The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1895 Studies in Language and Literature University of Wisconsin,1920
