Before long her mother was already thinking of ways to tame her worrisome frolics. At one instance she made a deal with a local butcher and her daughter. She could run to the butcher's shop climb onto the counter and perform to her fans with song and dance. At least with that she could stop making sudden disappearances. Lucille Ball wasn't your average child-teen woman-mother she was different. Decades after her death it's still difficult to forget the first pregnant woman to play a pregnant woman on TV. Who were her siblings? how did she grow up? How did she start her career? How did she get to the pinnacle of acting in America? How was her love life? What were her greatest fears? How did she die? These are some of the most pertinent questions everyone who knew Ball has been having and I bet you've got a few as well. But guess
