Todo texto se tece e se materializa na atualidade conferida por quem lê. O texto prefigura seu leitor. A tessitura ganha corpo em jogo que implica controle do texto e criação do leitor. Imagina o somada consciência interpretativa em acepo lírica e afetiva. A ficção narrativa do escritor angolano Pepetela se constitui como nosso objeto de estudo. Em proposta de articulação dialética, tal obra incita o leitor a compor sua fala. No rastro do leitor investigamos as estratégias construídas para a configuração de uma poética da leitura. Nosso estudo reflete conjuntamente sobre a consciência da produção materializada na obra, seu projeto de inserção do leitor e o papel deste último em implicitude. Ademais, tangencia no âmbito do diálogo texto e leitor o projeto de compartilhamento de memórias e formação de repertório instaurado pela escrita romanesca. Analisamos romances cujas estratégias de composição investem em arquitetura de poética da leitura. As aventuras de Ngunga (1981), Mayombe (1980), O cão e os caluandas (2006), Lueji o nascimento de um império (2015). Se o passado não tivesse asas (2016). Seguindo lição exemplarmente apresentada pelas obras estudadas, os convocados variados parceiros de percurso reflexivo e analítico. No entanto, dialogamos sobretudo com a teoria do efeito estético e a antropologia literária de Iser e as problematizações concernentes dialogia e polifonia de Bakhtin.

Diálogos críticos, 2005

International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997

Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars, International Postmodernism divides into four main sections. The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view, followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature, while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing. The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world. Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism: the consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism; equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general; and the focus on the text and the reader, i.e. the reader's knowledge, experience, interests, and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation. This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism, although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference. The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors, Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema, opt for the title International Postmodernism.

Millar traces the legacies of anti imperial solidarity in Cuban and Angolan novels and films after 1989 Cuba s intervention in Angola s post independence civil war from 1976 to 1991 was its longest and most engaged internationalist project and left a profound mark on the culture of both nations After the fall of the Berlin Wall Millar argues Cuban and Angolan writers and filmmakers responded to this collective history and adapted to new postsocialist realities in analogous ways developing what she characterizes as works of disappointment Revamping and riffing on earlier texts and forms of revolutionary enthusiasm works of disappointment lay bare the aesthetic and political fragmentation of the public sphere while continuing to register the promise of leftist political projects Pushing past the binaries that tend to dominate histories of the Cold War and its aftermath Millar gives priority to the perspectives of artists in the Global South illuminating networks of anticolonial and racial solidarity and showing how their works not only reflect shared feelings of disappointment but also call for ethical gestures of empathy and reconciliation
