ordering him to live at home so the family could look for a cure for Richard's homosexuality. Daniel, who admitted that he himself was gay after being married and who was very accepting when his son Charles came out, since it provided them with a special bond. Marty, whose response to his son Gary's coming out was to join PFLAG, an organization for parents of gay and lesbian children, so he could find support and acceptance among other parents who were going through the same thing. Out of the Twilight allows you to see how fathers have struggled with the truth about their sons' sexuality. This book presents a unique opportunity to develop a greater awareness of and appreciation for father-son similarities and differences and suggests that through time, communication and love, fathers can become comfortable with and respectful of their sons' homosexuality.

One of the Boys David Plummer, 2016-04-15 One of the Boys: Masculinity, Homophobia and Modern Manhood takes a fresh look at the formation of modern male sexual identities. You will find that homophobia is not only widespread but that it takes diverse forms and has far-reaching behavioral and social consequences. The new concept of homophobic passage, which is part of the development of all young men, will enlighten you as to the proposed causes of homosexuality and heterosexuality. One of the Boys will help you discover how the passage of young males from childhood to adulthood plays an important role in the formation of the modern adult male self in gay and straight men. As a result, this knowledge will allow you to offer relevant services to clients who are struggling with societal stereotypes and identity issues. From this informative book, you will discover how homophobia plays a role in the increase in violence experienced by gay men and lesbians in our culture today. To help you offer improved services, One of the Boys discusses why homophobia is widespread, takes diverse forms, and has far-reaching behavioral and social consequences by examining the school playground and its many effects on children's peer groups to discover how profoundly names like crybaby and poofster can impact a child's development, learning that children often cannot escape harmful labels and stereotypes at home and realizing how it impacts a child's developing sense of self, discovering the media's influence on role models, and realizing the important role television and magazines play in providing information about homosexuality and homophobia. Realizing the heavy pressure homophobia exerts on men and how it shapes their relationships with women and other men, how emotionally close they allow themselves to get to people, how affectionate they are, and with whom they have sexual relations. Through One of the Boys, you will gain valuable insight into the masculinity of the men interviewed and how it was shaped in order for you to develop a greater understanding of men and the many influences of society as a whole. This unique study investigates the development of homophobia and the meanings and significances people associate with it to help you understand how and where homophobia originates in our society.

Gender under Construction Ewa Glapka, Barbara Braid, 2018-03-27 Gender performativity its variances depending on their historical, social, and cultural contexts and the rituals, representations, and institutions involved in gender performances are some of the issues the authors addressed in this collection. Gender under Construction takes a non-essentialist view of gender and provides illustrative examples of gender constructive processes by pursuing them in various contexts and by means of diverse methodologies In so doing the book demonstrates that it is unfeasible to consider gender as a fixed biological trait Instead the authors propose to look at gender performance as ongoing processes in which femininities and masculinities enter multiple and dynamic intersections with a myriad of categories including those of nationality ethnicity class sexuality and age Contributors are Iqbal Akthar Renata uk Ewa Glapka Deirdre Hynes Borja Ibaseta Martin King Ana Cristina Moreira Lima Mervi Patosalmi Marcia Bastos de S Andr a Costa da Silva Vera Helena Ferraz de Siqueira Christi van der Westhuizen and Isabelle V Zinn
