

TEMPLATE FOR SERMON OUTLINES

Example

Below is a sample sermon template. As you'll see, it's a brief outline that establishes interest in the topic, identifies with your audience, provides a biblical perspective, and applies it to life. Use this resource at your discretion, and feel free to contextualize each message based on your community and preaching style. For example, some communities will reference all of the biblical citations and more. Others might dive deep into theological and/or apologetic themes. Still others might prefer a less structured format. Whatever your preferred style, we hope these tools are beneficial.

Me This is where I explain who I am and what I'm all about.¹

- Introduce yourself in the context of the main idea and answer the question, "Where does this truth or sermon reveal itself in my life?"
 - "I have experienced [this thing] in life, and it's been very [choose the emotion you've felt—hard, confusing, exciting, tempting, liberating, etc.]"
 - For example: "Often I've found myself at a loss for how my [wife, friend, significant other] and I can love each other so much, and yet be so at odds with one another."

We Once I feel like my listeners know me a little and trust me, then I'm ready to engage them.²

- Once you've introduced the audience to the main idea as it relates to your life, you can introduce why the topic is important to all of us. Explain "why this truth or sermon is so important for all of us to discuss."
 - For example: "I bet you've experienced this confusion in relationships, too. The fact is, we all have."

God I take this emotional common ground I've established and introduce biblical truth into the discussion.³

- Now that you've engaged the listeners with the main idea in both Me and We, you can invite them to hear what God says about it, explaining "what the Bible has to say about this truth or sermon."
 - For example: "Would you believe that God has lots to say about how husbands and wives are to treat one another? Seriously! Let's check it out!" (Open, read, and examine the text.)

You I encourage short-term actions that lead to long-term discipleship.

- The call to action provides everyday responses to the question, "In light of what God says about this important topic, how will you respond?"
 - "Based on what we learned in the Scriptures, let's apply this principle to our lives, today, in practical and realistic ways."
 - For example: "Choose the person closest to you (emotionally, not physically), and commit to place their needs above yours for the next week."

Maclaren's sermon outlines : a choice collection of thirty-five model sermons Alexander Maclaren, Maclaren's Sermon Outlines Sheldon B. Quincer, 19?? Classic Sermon Outlines Matthew Henry, George Whitefield, Alexander Maclaren, 2001 This volume contains 105 model sermons among the best ever written and delivered in the English language These practical and doctrinally sound sermons have been expertly outlined and are ready to use The grace of God the righteousness of Christ and humankind's need for salvation shine loud and clear through these sermons Secrets of the Prince of Expositors Michael Hawk Mills, 2025-04-25 Crowds thronged to hear Alexander Maclaren Some tried to bribe the doormen for a seat and extra chairs often had to be placed on stage next to the pulpit What drew so many to travel to Manchester England to hear a preacher Maclaren knew how to apply the text to real life His dedication to expository preaching was unique in his day and even surpassed that of his friend Charles Haddon Spurgeon His ministry remains as a needed model for today because countless congregants still see the Bible as stories with little or no relevance to their daily duties Every Sunday people go to a Bible study listen to a sermon or read Scripture and they leave without transforming any part of their lives Despite consistently studying the Bible some people show little difference between the way they act now and the way they acted years ago This problem partially comes down to a lack of good biblical application coming from preachers and teachers of Scripture Maclaren's sermons as well as his essay An Old Preacher on Preaching teach expositors today how to make the Bible's truths come alive and be applicable Sermon Outlines Alexander Maclaren, 1954
