Macquarie Little Kids Dictionary Susan Butler, Linsay Knight, 1998 Macquarie Children's Dictionary, 1998

Australian Children's Books, 1980-2000 Marcie Muir, Kerry White, 2004 All Australian children's books published from 1989 to 2000 are listed in this essential reference for those who appreciate the richness of Australian writing for children. Following the same format as volumes 1 and 2 in this series, chronicling books published as early as 1774, entries include publishing details, the number of illustrations, and the awards received for each book. This third volume follows the continuing careers of authors such as Mem Fox, Bob Graham, Robin Klein, and Paul Jennings, and traces changes in the popularity of Australian themes and settings to identify publishing trends. Varied cultural aspects of modern day life are shown from globalization, commercialism, and the rise of the middle class in Asia to desktop publishing, outcome-based school curricula, and the modern obsession with celebrities, all of which are reflected in the type and quantity of books produced by Australian writers and publishers. The wealth of included material will extend researchers' understanding of the range of Australian children's books.

Literature & Pedagogy Anthony Cordingley, 2025-04-01 Building upon the approach to reading literature pioneered by Bruce Gardiner at the University of Sydney for over four decades, Literature and Pedagogy is devoted to the way that texts, literary texts in particular, seek to instruct us. Bruce Gardiner has inspired generations of teachers and scholars in the field of literary criticism. He stands for a scholarly ethos which is at risk of disappearing. His distinctive academic career, which was entirely devoted to research-led teaching, invites us to think about the relationships between literary studies and pedagogy. It also invites us to ask what role a unique pedagogical style plays in the evolution of a discipline. How does intergenerational transmission between teacher and student play out both within and beyond disciplinary boundaries? This collection explores these questions while also documenting Gardiner's methods of scholarly as much as professional resistance to the neo-liberalisation and neo-conservatism of contemporary academic culture. Contributors draw from inspiring encounters with him to reflect upon the rhetoric and motifs of pedagogy within literary works. They put Gardiner's mode of reading into practice by offering new interpretations of pedagogical mechanisms employed within important literary works from the seventeenth century to the present, and of cultural phenomena like colonial interpretations of the Australian lyrebird's song. The volume also offers pieces inspired by Gardiner, such as poetry, art, translation, and creative non-fiction, as well as three unpublished lectures by Gardiner himself. Techniques and methodologies of literary education are traditionally believed to offer students the keys with which to unlock the secrets of texts and foster their appreciation. Literature and Pedagogy offers a new perspective showing teachers and students of both education and literature how literary works present their own methods for reflecting critically upon how and why we learn, read, and teach.
