Alterwall Objectives...stories 3.0 Garrison Clifford Gibson,2012-06-05 Alterwall Objectives comprise the collected short stories of Gary Clifford Gibson written generally between 1989 and 2012 with most created during the 90s while living in S E Alaska in a non electrified rural hut Just Search for the Spirit Down Mill Road and other works were inspired by several influences from Stonehenge to Newgrange the Alaska Pulp Corporation and the lack of energy at N A S A and Congress to develop an electro magnetic mass driver to launch thousands of tons of space modules from Earth to orbit Gary also sought for answers to the perennial questions about the lack of political wisdom from generation to generation leading to war instead of low entropy progressive space exploration and ecotopia on Earth Well they were good goals for a very part time writer scribbling a few notes before the Internet era preponderantly when battery power recharged from several miles away via water and trail allowed Overkill Eliot Borenstein,2011-05-02 Perestroika and the end of the Soviet Union transformed every aspect of life in Russia and as hope began to give way to pessimism popular culture came to reflect the anxiety and despair felt by more and more Russians Free from censorship for the first time in Russia s history the popular culture industry publishing film and television began to disseminate works that featured increasingly explicit images and descriptions of sex and violence In Overkill Eliot Borenstein explores this lurid and often disturbing cultural landscape in close imaginative readings of such works as You re Just a Slut My Dear Ty prosto shliukha dorogaia a novel about sexual slavery and illegal organ harvesting the Nympho trilogy of books featuring a Chechen fighting sex addict and the Mad Dog and Antikiller series of books and films recounting respectively the exploits of the Russian Rambo and an assassin killing in the cause of justice Borenstein argues that the popular cultural products consumed in the post perestroika era were more than just diversions they allowed Russians to indulge their despair over economic woes and everyday threats At the same time they built a notion of nationalism or heroism that could be maintained even under the most miserable of social conditions when consumers felt most powerless For Borenstein the myriad depictions of deviance in pornographic and also detectiv fiction with their patently excessive and appalling details of social and moral decay represented the popular culture industry s response to the otherwise unimaginable scale of Russia's national collapse The full sense of collapse he writes required a panoptic view that only the media and culture industry were eager to provide amalgamating national collapse into one master narrative that would then be readily available to most individuals as a framework for understanding their own suffering and their own fears
