Beyond the Lens of Conservation Eva Keller, 2015-02-01 The global agenda of Nature conservation has led to the creation of the Masoala National Park in Madagascar and to an exhibit in its support at a Swiss zoo the centerpiece of which is a mini rainforest replica Does such a cooperation also trigger a connection between ordinary people in these two far flung places The study investigates how the Malagasy farmers living at the edge of the park perceive the conservation enterprise and what people in Switzerland see when looking towards Madagascar through the lens of the zoo exhibit It crystallizes that the stories told in either place have almost nothing in common one focuses on power and history the other on morality and progress Thus instead of building a bridge Nature conservation widens the gap between people in the North and the South

Has Hollywood Lost Its Mind? Chris Hicks, 2013-05-01 The wire thin line that separates movies rated PG and R has been crossed over so many times in both directions that industry observers are questioning whether the rating system carries any validity at all As a movie reviewer for more than thirty years and as a watchful caretaker parent author Chris Hicks learned pretty quickly that Hollywood movers and shakers like to push the envelope as they put it and it doesn't seem to matter whether it's a children's film or an adult movie It's not just R rated movies that are troubling PG 13s and even PGs can also be problematic And sometimes worse than problematic Simply put relying on the Motion Picture Association of America to make choices for you or your children is a mistake Breaking down the history of the film rating system and exploring today's ratings confusion and quagmire Hicks provides valuable information to help parents know how to interpret and what to expect from today's movies

Stolen World Jennie Erin Smith, 2011-01-04 Tortoises disappear from a Madagascar reserve and reappear in the Bronx Zoo A dead iguana floats in a jar awaiting its unveiling in a Florida court A viper causes mayhem from Ethiopia to Virginia In Stolen World Jennie Erin Smith takes the reader on an unforgettable journey a dark adventure over five decades and six continents In 1965 Hank Molt a young cheese salesman from Philadelphia reinvented himself as a specialist dealer in rare fauna traveling the world to collect exquisite reptiles for zoos and museums By the end of the decade that followed new endangered species laws had turned Molt into a convicted smuggler and an unrepentant one who went on to provide many of the same rare reptiles to many of the same institutions covertly But Molt soon found a rival in Tommy Crutchfield a Florida carpet salesman with every intention of usurping Molt as the most accomplished reptile smuggler in the country Like Molt Crutchfield had modeled himself after an earlier generation of natural history collectors celebrated for their service to science an ideal that for Molt and Crutchfield eclipsed the realities of the new wildlife protection laws Zoo curators caught between a desire for rare animals and the conservation minded focus of their institutions became the smugglers antagonists in court but also their best customers sometimes simultaneously Crutchfield forged ties with a criminally inclined Malaysian wildlife trader and emerged a millionaire beloved by some of the finest zoos in the world Molt following a string of inventive but disastrous smuggling schemes in New Guinea was reduced to hanging around Crutchfield s Florida compound plotting Crutchfield s demise The fallout from their feud would result in a major federal investigation with tentacles in Germany Madagascar Holland and Malaysia And yet even after prison personal ruin and the depredations of age Molt and Crutchfield never stopped scheming never stopped longing for the snake or lizard that would earn each his rightful place in a world that had forgotten them or rather had never recognized them to begin with
