Madam C J Walker the first American woman to become a self made millionaire Madam C.J. Walker A'Lelia Perry Bundles,2008 Madam C J Walker the first woman black or white to become a self made millionaire started out as a laundress with few prospects Originally named Sarah Breedlove she was the first in her formerly enslaved family to be born free Poor for most of her life Walker invented a line of hair care products when she was 37 years old Eleven years later she owned and operated her own thriving business the Madam C J Walker Manufacturing Company She trained thousands of consultants almost all of them women who purchased her products for resale to their customers throughout the United States Central America and the Caribbean Through her work Walker created a legacy of pride and do it yourself spirit that still resonates today Read about this remarkable woman and her legacy in Madam C J Walker Entrepreneur Forgotten African American Firsts Hans Ostrom,J. David Macey Jr.,2023-03-16 Winner of the 2024 RUSA Outstanding Reference Award This book introduces students to African American innovators and their contributions to art entertainment sports politics religion business and popular culture While the achievements of such individuals as Barack Obama Toni Morrison and Thurgood Marshall are well known many accomplished African Americans have been largely forgotten or deliberately erased from the historical record in America This volume introduces students to those African Americans whose successes in entertainment business sports politics and other fields remain poorly understood Dr Charles Drew whose pioneering research on blood transfusions saved thousands of lives during World War II Mae Jemison an engineer who in 1992 became the first African American woman to travel in outer space and Ethel Waters the first African American to star in her own television show are among those chronicled in Forgotten African American Firsts With nearly 150 entries across 17 categories this book has been carefully curated to showcase the inspiring stories of African Americans whose hard work courage and talent have led the course of history in the United States and around the world Madam C. J. Walker Erica L. Ball,2021-01-29 An exhaustively detailed account of the life of Madam C J Walker Booklist Starred Review Madam C J Walker reputed to be America s first self made woman millionaire has long been celebrated for her rags to riches story Born to former slaves in the Louisiana Delta in the aftermath of the Civil War married at fourteen and widowed at twenty Walker spent the first decades of her life as a laundress laboring in conditions that paralleled the lives of countless poor and working class African American women By the time of her death in 1919 however Walker had refashioned herself into one of the most famous African American figures in the nation the owner and president of a hair care empire and a philanthropist wealthy enough to own a country estate near the Rockefellers in the prestigious New York town of Irvington on Hudson In this biography Erica Ball places this remarkable and largely forgotten life story in the context of Walker s times Ball analyzes Walker s remarkable acts of self fashioning and explores the ways that Walker and the Walker brand enabled a new generation of African Americans to bridge the gap between a nineteenth century agrarian past and a twentieth century future as urban dwelling consumers African American Management History Leon C. Prieto,Simone T. A. Phipps,2025-03-27 This second edition
