Madame Cecils Swamp:

Madame Cecil's Swamp Pamela Dutka, 2005-10 One day five young school children take a daring adventure into the swamp because of the local legend of Madame Cecil The legend began over two hundred years ago when five young children went on a late afternoon adventure of their own into the swamp and disappeared The local townspeople searched the swamp by the light of a full moon for the children only to find Madame Cecil chanting a spell Madame Cecils Swamp is known to be haunted and every twenty years the trees come to life and the wind sings Curiosity and determination to show their bravery to each other takes the children on a camping adventure that will teach them to trust each other and bond their everlasting friendship Will their friendship and trust in each other be strong enough to break the curse of Madame Cecil Or will they become part of the local legend
