Madame La Mort And Other Plays:

Madame La Mort and Other Plays Rachilde, 1998 Rachilde was the pseudonym of Marguerite Eymery Vallette 1860 1953 a woman of powerful personality who made her place at the very center of the Symbolist movement in fin de siècle France Though relatively unknown in America Rachilde had a significant influence on the course of French and Western literature and theater She was a pioneer of antirealistic drama and the first to use the term absurd to characterize the new kind of theater that would be a pretext for a dream Rachilde's sexual politics and sardonic humor make her plays more interesting and more performable today than many of those of her more famous contemporaries Where male Symbolists were obsessed with death Rachilde explores the fearful thrill of sexuality Topical challenging and all but lost to contemporary audiences her extraordinary work offers the shock of relevance and freshness of discovery Rachilde and French Women's Authorship Melanie Hawthorne, 2001-01-01 Under the assumed name Rachilde Marguerite Eymery 1860 1953 wrote over sixty works of fiction drama poetry memoir and criticism including Monsieur V nus one of the most famous examples of decadent fiction She was closely associated with the literary journal Mercure de France inspired parts of Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray and mingled with all the literary lights of the day Yet for all that very little has been written about her Melanie C Hawthorne corrects this oversight and counters the traditional approach to Rachilde by persuasively portraying this eccentric as patently representative of the French women writers of her time and of the social and literary issues they faced Seen in this light Rachilde's writing clearly illustrates important questions in feminist literary theory as well as significant features of turn of the century French society Hawthorne arranges her approach to Rachilde around several defining events in the author's life including the controversial publication of Monsieur V nus with its presentation of sex reversals Weaving back and forth in time she is able to depict these moments in relation to Rachilde's life work and times and to illuminate nineteenth century publishing practices and rivalries including authorial manipulations of the market for sexually suggestive literature The most complete and accurate account yet written of this emblematic author Hawthorne's work is also the first to situate Rachilde in the broader social contexts and literary currents of her time and of our own

Before Trans Rachel Mesch, 2020-05-12 This thoughtful academic treatise explores the lives of three famous gender nonconformists in fin de siècle Paris Publishers Weekly Before the term transgender existed there were those who experienced their gender in complex ways Before Trans examines the lives and writings of Jane Dieulafoy 1850 1916 Rachilde 1860 1953 and Marc de Montifaud 1845 1912 three French writers whose gender expression did not conform to nineteenth century notions of femininity Dieulafoy fought alongside her husband in the Franco Prussian War later she wrote novels about girls becoming boys and enjoyed being photographed in her signature men's suits Rachilde became famous in the 1880s for her controversial gender bending novel Monsieur V nus published around the same time that she started using a calling card that read Rachilde Man of Letters Montifaud turned to erotic writings for which she was repeatedly charged with offense to public decency she wore tailored men's suits and a short haircut and went by masculine pronouns among certain friends Dieulafoy Rachilde and Montifaud established themselves as fixtures in the literary world of fin de siècle Paris at the same time as French writers scientists and doctors were becoming fascinated with sexuality and sexual difference Even so the concept of gender identity as separate from sexual identity did not yet exist Before Trans explores these three figures efforts to articulate a sense of selfhood that did not align with the conventional gender roles of their day Their personal stories provide vital historical context for our own efforts to understand the nature of gender identity A fresh and original take on trans history Jack Halberstam author of The Queer Art of Failure An Anthology of Modern French Poetry

Sikes,2007-08-06 Sikes traces the shifting role of performance in the fashioning of subjectivity from the Modern to the Postmodern eras The book joins history and historiography and is grounded in a body of research about varied performance subjects from court dance ballet opera festivals celebrations propaganda films Hollywood movies to reality TV The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Politics Peter Eckersall,Helena Grehan,2019-03-14 The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Politics is a volume of critical essays provocations and interventions on the most important questions faced by today's writers critics audiences and theatre and performance makers Featuring texts written by scholars and artists who are diversely situated geographically culturally politically and institutionally its multiple perspectives broadly address the question How can we be political now To respond to this question Peter Eckersall and Helena Grehan have created eight galvanising themes as frameworks or rubrics to rethink the critical creative and activist perspectives on questions of politics and theatre Each theme is linked to a set of guiding keywords Post post consensus post Brexit post Fukushima post neoliberalism post humanism post global financial crisis post acting the real Assembly assemblage disappearance permission community citizen protest refugee Gap who is in and out what can be seen heard funded allowed Institution visibility darkness inclusion rules Machine biodata surveillance economy mediatization Message performance and conviction didacticism propaganda End suffering stasis collapse entropy Re reset rescale reanimate reimagine replay how to bring complexity back into the public arena how art can help to do this These themes were developed in conversation with key thinkers and artists in the field and the resulting texts engage with artistic works across a range of modes including traditional theatre contemporary performance public protest events activism and community and participatory theatre Suitable for academics performance makers and students The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Politics explores questions of how to be political in the early 21st century by exploring how theatre and performance might provoke unsettle reinforce or productively destabilise the status quo Fashioning Spaces Heidi Brevik-Zender,2015-02-26 In Fashioning Spaces Heidi Brevik Zender argues that in the years between 1870 and 1900 the chroniclers of Parisian modernity depicted the urban landscape not just in public settings such as boulevards and parks but also in dislocations spaces where the public and the intimate overlapped in provocative and subversive ways Stairwells theatre foyers dressmakers studios and dressing rooms were in between places that have long been overlooked but were actually marked as indisputably modern through their connections with high fashion Fashioning Spaces engages with and thinks beyond the work of critics Charles Baudelaire and Walter Benjamin to arrive at new readings of the French capital Examining literature by Zola Maupassant Rachilde and others as well as paintings architecture and the fashionable garments worn by both men and women Brevik Zender crafts a compelling and innovative account of how fashion was appropriated as a way of writing about the complexities of modernity in fin de siècle Paris

Visualizing Violence in Francophone Cultures Magali Compan, 2015-10-13 Visualizing Violence in Francophone Cultures brings together two complex and powerful loci of meaning violence and the visual As such it offers a comprehensive overview from which one can gain a better understanding of the complexity of the visual rhetoric of violence The visual representations of violence explored in this volume include both fictional works including for example narrative films graphic novels and theatre and non fictional genres such as news media and cultural artifacts This volume's strength is also grounded in its interdisciplinary approach by bringing together scholars from a variety of academic fields to examine a broad range of visual artifacts such as photography graphic novel films paintings objects the book offers a substantive corpus focusing on the rhetoric of violence The essays collected in this volume explore the ways in which visual expressions of violence have infiltrated diverse narrative forms and as such how they both construct and challenge general understandings of contemporary violence They all chart with cultural and historical specificity the way in which images of violence shape the visual imaginary of ethical worlds

Staging Politics and Gender C. Beach, 2005-06-15 In Staging Politics and Gender Cecilia Beach examines the political and feminist plays of French playwrights who have largely been overlooked until now Beach highlights the importance of theatrical endeavors which women perceived as a powerful way to promote political opinions The author analyzes the work of Louise Michel Nelly Roussel Marie Leneru Vera Starkoff and Madeline Pelletier and discusses anarchist theatre and forms of social protest theatre at the turn of the century

Staging Decadence Adam Alston, 2023-09-07 Winner of the 2024 TaPRA David Bradby Monograph Prize How is decadence being staged today as a practice issue pejorative and as a site of pleasure Where might we find it why might we look for it and who is decadence for This book is the first monographic study of decadence in theatre and performance Adam Alston makes a passionate case for the contemporary relevance of decadence in the thick of a resurgent culture war by focusing on its antithetical relationship to capitalist led growth progress and intensified productivity He argues that the qualities used to disparage the study and practice of theatre and performance are the very things we should embrace in celebrating their value namely their spectacular uselessness wastefulness outmodedness and abundant potential for producing forms of creativity that flow away from the ends and excesses of capitalism Alston covers an eclectic range of examples by Julia Bardsley UK Hasard Le Sin Finland jaamil olawale kosoko USA Toco Nikaido Japan Martin O'Brien UK Toshiki Okada Japan Marcel I Ant nez Roca Spain
