Lamont, 2014-10-03 The names Jamestown and Plymouth have become synonymous for most students of American history with founding and birth both of the American nation and of freedom and democracy themselves In this book author Ted Lamont asks us to reconsider our country s formative years and explore the stories lives achievements and failures of

America's earliest founding fathers those who paved the way for the Colonial Era and the American Revolution They were explorers investors passionate religious leaders and determined developers who struggled for generations to successfully plant the English flag in this strange new soil Lamont deftly details the ways in which the stories and struggles of figures like Sir Walter Raleigh Bartholomew Gosnold Richard Hakluyt Sir Ferdinando Gorges and Captain John Smith were not just related but connected in ways that help us better understand the colonies and culture born of their efforts The infancy of America from Roanoke's founding in 1585 through the firm establishment of Jamestown and Plymouth in 1625 is where we first see planted the seeds of the rest of America's colonial economic political and cultural history that was the immensely difficult and often overlooked first step toward the New World we are still working to perfect

Treasures from India: Jewels from the Al-Thani Collection Navina Najat Haidar, Courtney Ann Stewart, 2014-10-27 India's rich heritage of jeweled artistry is expressed in extravagant and opulent creations that range from ornaments for every part of the body to ceremonial court objects such as boxes daggers and thrones Treasures from India presents more than sixty iconic works from the renowned Al Thani collection including pieces created for the imperial Mughals in the seventeenth century others made for the nizams of Hyderabad and the maharajas of the Rajput courts from the eighteenth to the twentieth century Indian inspired jewelry fashioned by Cartier and other Western firms and contemporary designs The lucid text discusses the significance of these objects within the history of Indian jeweled arts demonstrating how they stand among the highest expressions of Indian culture

On the Edge Roger McCoy, 2012-07-18 With our access to Google Maps Global Positioning Systems and Atlases that cover all regions and terrains and tell us precisely how to get from one place to another we tend to forget there was ever a time when the world was unknown and uncharted a mystery waiting to be solved In On the Edge Roger McCoy tells the captivating and often harrowing story of the 400 year effort to map North America's Coasts Much of the book is based on the narratives of mariners who sought a passage through the continent to Asia and produced maps as a byproduct of their journeys These courageous explorers had to rely on the most rudimentary mapping tools and to contend with unimaginably harsh conditions ship crushing ice floes the threat of frostbite scurvy and starvation gold fever and mutiny ice that could lock them in for months on end and inevitably the failure to find the elusive Northwest passage Telling the story from the explorers perspective McCoy allows readers to see how maps of their voyages were made and why they were so full of errors as well as how they gradually acquired greater accuracy especially after the longitude problem was solved On the Edge tracks the dramatic voyages of John Cabot John Davis Captain Cook Henry Hudson Martin Frobisher John Franklin who nearly starved to death and become known in England as the man who ate his boots and others concluding with Robert Peary Otto Sverdrup and Vihjalmur Steffanson in the early twentieth century Drawing upon diaries journals and other primary sources and including a set of maps charting the progress of exploration over time On the Edge shows exactly how we came to know the House of Commons, 1900     The Makers of Canada Series William Lawson Grant, 1926     The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh, 1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada's motto and a good description of this volume's range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada's finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada Montreal, 1535-1914: Under the French régime, 1535-1760 William Henry Atherton, 1914

Under the French régime, 1535-1760 William Henry Atherton, 1914      Crucial Maps in the Early Cartography and Place-Nomenclature of the Atlantic Coast of Canada William F. Ganong, 1964-12-15 The Transactions of the Royal Society of Canada for the years from 1929 to 1937 included a series in nine parts of important papers on Crucial Maps which have been a frequent source of reference ever since for students of the history of discovery and of early cartography Their author William Francis Ganong had a life long interest in the natural and human history of his native province New Brunswick Although he was primarily a botanist with four full length books and an amazing number of articles to his credit it was through his series of monographs in the Transactions of the Royal Society of Canada that the breadth of his interests became known For over fifty years he contributed almost annually to the Transactions the results of his systematic investigations into New Brunswick's physiography aborigines early explorations wars and settlements Crucial Maps which concluded in 1937 was the last series of articles Ganong was the first investigator to employ a critical classification of maps based upon groupings by period and type although the cartography of Canada's east coast had earlier been introduced by Baron Alexander von Humboldt Ganong's contributions to cartography are enormous for example his reconstruction of Cabot's voyages while all may not agree with it is a masterpiece of inductive analysis which will remain a model in historical research his chapters on Gomez Verrazzano and Fagundes are still the chief secondary sources on these discoverers There have been notable additions to the bibliography of discovery and maps since Ganong wrote recently published works as well as the complete file of Ganong's correspondence with his fellow cartographer G R F Prowse were consulted by Theodore E Layng Map Division Public Archives of Canada in preparing the commentaries which accompany this edition of Crucial Maps These commentaries with Mr Layng's introduction also provide an interesting sketch of Dr Ganong and his work Another important feature of this edition is the index prepared by William Morley of the John Carter Brown Library In much of his work Ganong was a pioneer and while subsequent studies have reached different conclusions on some points many of his results have seldom been challenged Students of the present and future will still use and quote from Crucial Maps Royal Society of Canada Special Publications No 7      Where Are the Voices Coming From? ,2021-10-18 This collection of essays focuses on Canadian history and its legacies as represented in novels and films in English and French produced in Canada mainly in the 1980s and 1990s The approach is both cross cultural and interdisciplinary aiming at articulating Canadian differences through a comparison of anglophone and francophone cultures illustrated by works treating some of the different groups which make up Canadian society English Canadian Qu becois Acadian Native and ethnic minorities The emphasis is on the problematic representation of Canadianness which is closely bound up with constructions of history and its legacies dispossession criminality nomadism Gothicism the Maritime The English French language difference is emblematic of Canadian difference the two part arrangement with one section on Literature and the other on Film sets up the pattern of relationships between the two forms of cultural representation that these essays explore Essays in the Literature section are on single texts by such writers as Margaret Atwood Tomson Highway Ann Marie MacDonald Anne Michaels and Alice Munro Gabrielle Roy Anne H bert Antonine Maillet Bernard Assiniwi and R gine Robin The Film section with its mirror structure both supplements and amplifies this dialogue extending notions of Canadianness with its emphasis on voices from Quebec and Acadia traditionally othered in Canadian history Filmmakers treated include Phillip Borsos Atom Egoyan Ted Kotcheff Mort Ransen and Vincent Ward Denys Arcand Gilles Carle Alanis Obomsawin L a Pool and Jacques Savoie

Image and Identity R. Bruce Elder, Academy of Canadian Cinema & Television, 1989 Image and Identity examines the unique qualities of Canadian cinema situating it within the broader spectrum of Canadian culture as a whole Taking a genetic approach toward uncovering an answer to the ever pressing Canadian question In reality who are we Bruce Elder explores the essential features of Canadian thought and the distinctive Canadian philosophical traditions that developed in response to our particular historical and geographical circumstances Arguing that this rich yet largely neglected tradition is still reflected in much of our current artistic practice Elder examines the Canadian documentary tradition English Canadian narrative filmmaking and the works of our cinematic avant garde Focusing on the particular strengths of the avant garde cinema and providing in depth analyses of the works of Michael Snow Jack Chambers David Rimmer and many others he demonstrates why these internationally celebrated Canadian artists have been at the forefront of the transition from modernist to postmodernist practices      The Order of Canada Christopher P. McCreery, 2018-05-04 In 1966 a project to create a national honour for Canadians was begun The order recognizes individuals for their outstanding achievements dedication and service to the country It is a product of national identity politics and history and includes such individuals as Atom Egoyan Joseph Boyden and Louise Arbour The second edition of The Order of Canada continues the celebration of the order Christopher McCreery sheds new light on the development of Canadian honours in the early 1930s the imposed prohibition on honours from 1946 to 1967 and new details on those who have been removed or resigned from the Order Extensively illustrated The Order of Canada pays tribute to the individuals who felt the need for a system of recognition for Canadians Indeed the order s history is as fascinating as the more than four thousand Canadians who have received it
