Soho on Screen Jingan Young, 2022-05-13 Despite Soho s rich cultural history there remains an absence of work on the depiction of the popular neighbourhood in film Soho on Screen provides one of the first studies of Soho within post war British cinema Drawing upon historical cultural and urban studies of the area this book explores twelve films and theatrically released documentaries from a filmography of over one hundred Soho set productions While predominantly focusing on low budget exploitation films which are exemplars of British and international filmmaking Young also offers new readings of star and director biographies from Laurence Harvey to Emeric Pressburger and in so doing enlivens discussion on filmmaking in a time and place of intense social transformation technological innovation and growing permissiveness

The Drive-In Guy Barefoot, 2023-11-16 The Drive In meaningfully contributes to the complex picture of outdoor cinema that has been central to American culture and to a history of US cinema based on diverse viewing experiences rather than a select number of films Drive in cinemas flourished in 1950s America in some summer weeks to the extent that there were more cinemagoers outdoors than indoors Often associated with teenagers interested in the drive in as a passion pit or a venue for exploitation films accounts of the 1950s American drive in tend to emphasise their popularity with families with young children downplaying the importance of a film programme apparently limited to old low budget or independent films and characterising drive in operators as industry outsiders They retain a hold on the popular imagination The Drive In identifies the mix of generations in the drive in audience as well as accounts that articulate individual experiences from the drive in as a dating venue to a segregated space Through detailed analysis of the film industry trade press local newspapers and a range of other primary sources including archival records on cinemas and cinema circuits in Arkansas California New York State and Texas this book examines how drive ins were integrated into local communities and the film industry and reveals the importance and range of drive in programmes that were often close to that of their indoor neighbours

Queer Obscenity Javier Fernández-Galeano, 2024-07-16 Under Spain's twentieth century dictators state agents not only censored eradicated and attempted to prevent the circulation of obscenity but also contradictorily engaged in curation and even restoration initiatives that have bequeathed us an extensive queer pornographic archive Javier Fernández-Galeano takes us inside the archive to demonstrate how the incongruities of the Primo de Rivera 1923 1930 and Franco 1939 1975 regimes were manifested in the regulation of erotic material cultures The dictators' authorities destroyed straight pornographies while often curating and preserving queer erotica While reproductions of the masterpieces of Tintoretto Michelangelo and Botticelli were incinerated to avoid their deviant effects judicial authorities could repeatedly attend the screening of an amateur film showing a gay threesome without acknowledging the irony their concern was not that obscene material was consumed but rather by whom Focusing on amateur pornographers and their confiscated and censored erotica this book adds a rich complexity to both the history and theory of pornography demonstrating that surveillance depends entirely on documenting intimacy and preserving transgression This book sheds new light on the production consumption and circulation of pornography and erotica in Spain over the course of the twentieth century drawing connections between intimate queer desires preservation and erasure

Hollywood v. Hard Core Jon Lewis,2002-09-01 A tale of censorship and regulation at the heart of the modern film industry In 1972 The Godfather and Deep Throat were the two most popular films in the country One a major Hollywood studio production the other an independently made skin flick At that moment Jon Lewis asserts the fate of the American film industry hung in the balance Spanning the 20th century Hollywood v Hard Core weaves a gripping tale of censorship and regulation Since the industry s infancy film producers and distributors have publicly regarded ratings codes as a necessary evil Hollywood regulates itself we have been told to prevent the government from doing it for them But Lewis argues that the studios self regulate because they are convinced it is good for business and that censorship codes and regulations are a crucial part of what binds the various competing agencies in the film business together Yet between 1968 and 1973 Hollywood films were faltering at the box office and the major studios were in deep trouble Hollywood s principal competition came from a body of independently produced and distributed films from foreign art house film Last Tango in Paris to hard core pornography like Behind the Green Door that were at once disreputable and for a moment at least irresistible even chic In response Hollywood imposed the industry wide MPAA film rating system the origins of the G PG and R designations we have today that pushed sexually explicit films outside the mainstream and a series of Supreme Court decisions all but outlawed the theatrical exhibition of hard core pornographic films Together these events allowed Hollywood to consolidate its iron grip over what films got made and where they were shown thus saving it from financial ruin
