Yugoslavia Carol S. Lilly, 2024-02-08 Across the globe memorial and grave sites are being increasingly weaponized in conflicts and politicized by parties to advance agendas Here Carol S Lilly examines ideas of death politics memory ideology and nationalism in the former Yugoslav republics of Bosnia Hercegovina Croatia and Serbia to shine fresh light on cemetery culture in 20th century Europe More specifically Death and Burial in Socialist Yugoslavia argues that while the CPY created its own communities of the dead in postwar Partisan Cemeteries it failed to do the same for civilian cemeteries in ways that might reinforce its ideals of secularism pluralism and brotherhood and unity Moreover the communist regime left the previous system of ethno religious segregation in place further isolating Catholics Orthodox Muslims and Jews who continued to be buried in separate locations Finally it explicitly politicized burial rites and grave markers making cemeteries into legitimate spaces of political discourse As a result by the time Yugoslavia disintegrated in the early 1990s dead bodies and cemeteries had become a concerted weapon of war in the ongoing ethnic conflict Ultimately then this timely study reveals for the first time the extent to which the communist regime not only failed to created their own communities of the dead but also further divided and alienated living communities in Yugoslavia Music and Displacement Erik Levi, Florian

Scheding, 2010-03-25 The grand narratives of European music history are informed by the dichotomy of placements and displacements Yet musicology has thus far largely ignored the phenomenon of displacement and underestimated its significance for musical landscapes and music history Music and Displacement Diasporas Mobilities and Dislocations in Europe and Beyond constitutes a pioneering volume that aims to fill this gap as it explores the interactions between music and displacement in theoretical and practical terms Contributions by distinguished international scholars address the theme through a wide range of case studies incorporating art popular folk and jazz music and interacting with areas such as gender and post colonial studies critical theory migration and diaspora The book is structured in three stages silence acculturation and theory that move from silence to sound and from displacement to placement The range of subject matter within these sections is deliberately hybrid and mirrors the eclectic nature of displacement itself with case studies exploring Nazi Anti Semitism in musical displacement musical life in the Jewish community of Palestine Mahler Jewishness and Jazz the Irish Diaspora in England and German Exile studies among others Featuring articles from such scholars as Ruth F Davis Sean Campbell Jim Samson Sydney Hutchinson and Europea series co editor Philip V Bohlman the volume exerts an appeal reaching beyond music and musicology to embrace all areas in the humanities concerned with notions of displacement

Trauma Journalism Mark H. Massé, 2011-10-06 The role of journalists in covering trauma and tragedy isn't new. Witnessing acts of violence, destruction and terror has long been the professional responsibility of countless print and broadcast reporters and photographers. But what is new is a growing awareness of the emotional consequences of such coverage on the victims, their families and loved ones, their communities and on the journalists whose job it is to tell these stories. Trauma Journalism personalizes this movement with in-depth profiles of reporters, researchers and trauma experts engaged in an international effort to transform how the media work under the most difficult of conditions. Through biographical sketches concerning several significant traumatic events—Oklahoma City bombing, Columbine school tragedy, 9/11, Iraq War, the South Asian tsunami, Hurricane Katrina—students and working reporters will gain insights into the critical components of contemporary journalism practices affecting news judgment, news gathering techniques as well as legal and ethical issues. Trauma Journalism calls for the creation through ongoing education of a culture of caring among journalists worldwide.

The Trauma Question Roger Luckhurst, 2013-06-17 In this book Roger Luckhurst both introduces and advances the fields of cultural memory and trauma studies, tracing the ways in which ideas of trauma have become a major element in contemporary Western conceptions of the self. The Trauma Question outlines the origins of the concept of trauma across psychiatric, legal and cultural-political sources from the 1860s to the coining of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder in 1980. It further explores the nature and extent of trauma culture from 1980 to the present, drawing upon a range of cultural practices from literature, memoirs and confessional journalism through to photography and film. The study covers a diverse range of cultural works including writers such as Toni Morrison, Stephen King and W.G. Sebald; artists Tracey Emin, Christian Boltanski and Tracey Moffatt; and film makers David Lynch and Atom Egoyan. The Trauma Question offers a significant and fascinating step forward for those seeking a greater understanding of the controversial and ever-expanding field of trauma research.
