Foucault philosophy was a way of questioning the allegedly necessary truths that underpin the practices and institutions of modern society. He carried this out in a series of deeply original and strikingly controversial studies on the origins of modern medical and social scientific disciplines. These studies have raised fundamental questions about the nature of human knowledge and its relation to power structures and have become major topics of discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences. The essays in this volume provide a comprehensive overview of Foucault's major themes and texts from his early work on madness through his history of sexuality. Special attention is also paid to thinkers and movements from Kant through current feminist theory that are particularly important for understanding his work and its impact. This revised edition contains five new essays and revisions of many others and the extensive bibliography has been updated.

A Course in Miracles Foundation for Inner Peace, 2007. The only edition that contains in one place all of the writings that Dr. Helen Schucman, its scribe, authorized to be printed. P. 4 of cover.

Beyond Écriture Féminine Cathy Helen Wardle, 2007. Beyond Écriture féminine is the first book to be published exploring the work of the contemporary French author Jeanne Hyvrard. 1945 from her early novels of the 1970s up to some of her most recent texts. Moving critical accounts of Hyvrard beyond a focus upon écriture féminine, it identifies the patterns through which her writing repeats and transforms creation mythology, her own oeuvre and her own life, examining how intertextual repetitions bind her work together into a complex and ever-expanding web of allusions and resonances which engages the reader in a process of constant re-interpretation, challenging notions of linearity and reflecting the chaotic reality of life in the Hyvrardian world.

BOOK JACKET

Mad for Foucault Lynne Huffer, 2010. Contemporary critiques of sexuality have their origins in the work of Michel Foucault. While Foucault's seminal arguments helped to establish the foundations of queer theory and greatly advance feminist critique, Lynne Huffer argues that our interpretation of the theorist's powerful ideas remains flawed.

Neues vollständiges kritisches Wörterbuch der englischen und deutschen Sprache Thieme, 1856

Bedlam on the Streets Caroline Knowles, 2005-11-28. What happens when the mad are let out of the asylum and there is nowhere for them to go? This hard-hitting and controversial new book traces the terms on which the mad occupy the city's streets: homeless shelters, shopping centres and fast food outlets. This social geography of madness is situated within the broader parameters of systems of social welfare and globalization, arguing that the community mental health care system is actually a system of neglect. Bedlam on the Streets is a richly textured ethnography combining stark photographic images of people and places with an examination of city space and the voices of those that we label mad.

Given Time Jacques Derrida, 1992. Is giving possible? Is it possible to give without immediately entering into a circle of exchange that turns the gift into a debt to be returned? This question leads Jacques Derrida to make out an irresolvable paradox at what seems the most fundamental level of the gift's meaning: for the gift to be received as a gift, it must not appear as such, since its mere appearance as gift puts it in the cycle of repayment and debt. Derrida reads the relation of time to gift through a number of texts: Heidegger's Time and Being, Mauss's

The Gift as well as essays by Benveniste and Levi Strauss that assume Mauss's legacy. It is however a short tale by Baudelaire, Counterfeit Money, that guides Derrida's analyses throughout. At stake in his reading of the tale to which the second half of this book is devoted are the conditions of gift and forgiveness as essentially bound up with the movement of dissemination, a concept that Derrida has been working out for many years. For both readers of Baudelaire and students of literary theory, this work will prove indispensable.

Making Space for Indigenous Feminism, 3rd Edition Gina

Starblanket, 2024-05-23T00:00:00Z The third edition of the iconic collection Making Space for Indigenous Feminism features feminist, queer, and two-spirit voices from across generations and locations. Feminism has much to offer Indigenous women and all Indigenous Peoples in their struggles against oppression. Indigenous feminists in the first edition fought for feminism to be considered a valid and essential intellectual and activist position. The second edition animated Indigenous feminisms through real-world applications. This third edition, curated by award-winning scholar Gina Starblanket, reflects and celebrates Indigenous feminism's intergenerational longevity through the changing landscape of anti-colonial struggle and theory. Diverse contributors examine Indigenous feminism's ongoing relevance to contemporary contexts and debates, including queer and two-spirit approaches to decolonization, gendered and sexualized violence, storytelling and narrative, digital and land-based presence, Black and Indigenous relationalities, and more. This book bridges generations of powerful Indigenous feminist thinking to demonstrate the movement's cruciality for today.

Philosophy of Communication Briankle G. Chang, Garnet C. Butchart, 2012-08-10

Classical, modern, and contemporary philosophical writings that address the fundamental concepts of communication. To philosophize is to communicate philosophically. From its inception, philosophy has communicated forcefully. Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle talk a lot and talk ardently. Because philosophy and communication have belonged together from the beginning, and because philosophy comes into its own and solidifies its stance through communication, it is logical that we subject communication to philosophical investigation. This collection of key works of classical, modern, and contemporary philosophers brings communication back into philosophy's orbit. It is the first anthology to gather in a single volume foundational works that address the core questions, concepts, and problems of communication in philosophical terms. The editors have chosen thirty-two selections from the work of Plato, Leibniz, Hegel, Husserl, Heidegger, Wittgenstein, Benjamin, Lacan, Derrida, Sloterdijk, and others. They have organized these texts thematically rather than historically in seven sections: consciousness, intersubjective understanding, language, writing, and context, difference and subjectivity, gift and exchange, and communicability and community. Taken together, these texts not only lay the foundation for establishing communication as a distinct philosophical topic but also provide an outline of what philosophy of communication might look like.
