manic depression and schizophrenia Liah Greenfeld in the culminating volume of her trilogy on nationalism traces these dysfunctions to society's overburdening demands for self realization The Poetry of Nizami Ganjavi NA NA,2016-04-30 The work of Nizami Ganjavi a classical poet of the twelfth century is fueling new cultural debate in Iran in recent years The dominant discourse encourages the reading of the texts in light of biographical or theological conventions and religious motives These essays explore Nizami's influential role and his portrayal of issues related to love women and science stressing his preoccupation with the art of speech as a major impetus behind his literary activity An English Paraphrase of Horace's Art of Poetry Horace, Abby Osborne Russell, 1896 Resurgence, 1991 Experiencing Poetry Willie van Peer, Anna Chesnokova, 2022-12-01 How do we experience poetry as readers What is it in the text that provokes particular reactions and how can we methodologically reveal these effects Introducing an evidence based approach to poetics this book explores the psychological effects of poetic form and content with an emphasis on how real readers respond to and experience poetry Engaging with texts from diverse cultural and historical settings it covers the basics of stylistic theory while at the same time outlining the specific methods required to categorize readers cognitive emotional and attitudinal reactions Chapters guide you through engaging experiments covering key concepts such as significance averages deviation outliers and reliability and bring poetry to life by drawing on YouTube performances and musical renditions of the texts With further readings a glossary of key terms and ancillary resources providing an overview of research methodology this book equips you with all the linguistic and analytical tools needed to uncover the psychological workings of poetry The Hoosier Zebra And Other "Poims" R. Aivars Ukstins, 2015-11-13 Ronald Aivars Ukstins was born in 1950 one year after his parents emigrated from Latvia At first he only knew how to speak Latvian and as a European waif had many troubles with English grammar and American idealism which sometimes worked While attending elementary school in the Garden State he was given English lessons and compassionate understanding by an old principal Maude M Wilkins of Maple Shade School No 3 After a reasonably intelligent childhood and a happy adolescence he started in on the rat maze of higher education on the arse of the sixties He began with a biological summer session at Rutgers University Turning next to Upland Indiana where four years later 1972 Taylor University greeted the fledgling cobbler of words with a liberal AB He then clattered twenty miles as old cars sound to the infamous Ball U of the T shirt set Here in the hamburger mecca of the Midwest he began to take poetry seriously After four years of on and off study and riotous living Ball State University awarded him with an MA in journalism London Magazine John Lehmann, Alan Ross, 1989 Reading Nelligan Emile Talbot, 2003-05 mile Nelligan 1879 1941 wrote all of his poetry as an adolescent before spending four decades in a psychiatric asylum Considering all of Nelligan's work and using a largely textual approach mile Talbot points out the Canadian roots of Nelligan's originality He argues that these are discernable despite Nelligan's use of the discourse of nineteenth century continental French poetry particularly that of the Parnassians and the Decadents Talbot's textual analysis is integrated with a consideration of the social cultural artistic and religious climate of both late nineteenth century Montreal and the European literary culture to which Nelligan was responding Talbot considers such pertinent factors as the spirituality of guilt the role of the mother and a societal context that rejected both the revelation of the self and the autonomy of art In doing so he sheds new light on Nelligan s use of European poetic language to fashion a poetry marked by his own culture The Art of Poetry Marco Girolamo Vida, Horace, 1892 The Craftsman , 1910 The Perversity of Poetry Dino Franco Felluga, 2012-02-01 Once the dominant literary form poetry was gradually eclipsed by the realist novel indeed by 1940 W H Auden was able to note Poetry makes nothing happen In The Perversity of Poetry Dino Franco Felluga explores the cultural background of poetry s marginalization by examining nineteenth century reactions to Romantic poetry and ideology Focusing on the work of Sir Walter Scott and Lord Byron as well as periodical reviews student manuals and contemporary medical journals the book details the period s two contending and equally outrageous claims regarding poetry Scott s poetry on the one hand was continually represented as a panacea for a modern world overtaken by new principles of utilitarianism capitalism industrialism and democracy Byron s by contrast was represented either as a cancer in the heart of the social order or as a contagious pandemic leading to various pathological symptoms The book concludes with a coda on Alfred Lord Tennyson which illustrates how the Victorian reception of Scott and Byron affected the most popular poetic genius of midcentury Ultimately The Perversity of Poetry uncovers how the shift to a rhetoric of health allowed critics to oppose what they perceived as a potent and potentially dangerous influence on the age the very thing that would over the course of the century be marginalized into such obscurity poetry thanks to its perverse insistence on making something happen The Fragility of Goodness Martha C. Nussbaum, 2001-01-15 This book first published in 2001 is a study of ancient views about moral luck All Our Stories Are Here Brady Harrison, 2009-01-01 This wide ranging collection of essays addresses a diverse and expanded vision of Montana literature offering new readings of both canonical and overlooked texts Although a handful of Montana writers such as Richard Hugo A B Guthrie Jr D Arcy McNickle and James Welch have received considerable critical attention sizable gaps remain in the analysis of the state s ever growing and ever evolving canon The twelve essays in All Our Stories Are Here not only build on the exemplary foundational work of other writers but also open further interpretative and critical conversations Expanding on the critical paradigms of the past and bringing to bear some of the latest developments in literary and cultural studies the contributors engage issues such as queer ambivalence in Montana writing representations of the state in popular romances and the importance of the University of Montana s creative writing program in fostering the state s literary corpus The contributors also explore the work of writers who have not yet received their critical due take new looks at old friends and offer some of the first explorations of recent works by well established artists All Our Stories Are Here conveys a sense of continuity in the field of Western literary criticism while at the same time challenging conventional approaches to regional literature
