Music/Video Gina Arnold,Daniel Cookney,Kirsty Fairclough,Michael Goddard,2017-08-30 This book is a lively comprehensive and timely reader on the music video capitalising on cross disciplinary research expertise which represents a substantial academic engagement with the music video a mediated form and practice that still remains relatively under explored in a 21st century context The music video has remained suspended between two distinct poles On the one hand the music video as the visual sheen of late capitalism at the intersection of celebrity studies and postmodernism On the other hand the music video as art looking to a prehistory of avant garde film making while perpetually pushing forward the digital frontier with a taste for anarchy controversy and the integration of special effects into a form designed to be disseminated across digital platforms In this way the music video virally re engenders debates about high art and low culture This collection presents a comprehensive account of the music video from a contemporary 21st century perspective This entails revisiting key moments in the canonical history of the music video exploring its articulations of sexuality and gender examining its functioning as a form of artistic expression between music film and video art and following the music video s dissemination into the digital domain considering how digital media and social media have come to re invent the forms and functions of the music video well beyond the limits of music television Caryl Churchill's Top Girls Alicia

Nichols and the Cinema of Transformation J.W. Whitehead, 2014-05-21 Mike Nichols burst onto the American cultural scene in the late 1950s as one half of the comic cabaret team of Nichols and May. He became a Broadway directing sensation then moved on to Hollywood where his first two films Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? 1966 and The Graduate 1967 earned a total of 20 Academy Award nominations. Nichols won the 1968 Oscar for Best Director and later joined the rarefied EGOT (Emmy Grammy Oscar Tony club). He made many other American cinematic classics including Catch 22 1970, Carnal Knowledge 1971, Silkwood 1983, Working Girl 1988, Postcards from the Edge 1990 and his late masterpieces for HBO Wit 2001 and Angels in America 2003. Filmmakers like Steven Spielberg and Steven Soderbergh regard him with reverence. This first full career retrospective study of this protean force in the American arts begins with the roots of his filmmaking in satirical comedy and Broadway theatre and devotes separate chapters to each of his 20 feature films. Nichols' permanent achievements are his critique of the ways in which culture constructs conformity and his tempered optimism about individuals' liberation by transformative awakening.

Postcolonial Whiteness Alfred J. Lopez, 2012-02-01 Postcolonial Whiteness examines the interrelations between whiteness and the history of European colonialism as well as the status of whiteness in the contemporary postcolonial world. It addresses two fundamental questions: What happens to whiteness after empire and to what extent do white cultural norms or imperatives remain embedded in the postcolonial or postindependence state as a part acknowledged or not of the colonial legacy. Presenting a wide range of critical and theoretical responses, the contributors explore these questions by focusing on such diverse topics as the legacy of Princess Diana, queer self-expression, the changing situation of Gypsy or Romani minorities in Eastern Europe, literature including Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness, Caryl Phillips's Cambridge and Gothic, impact on the literature of Australia, reconstruction of white South African social identity, cross-cultural discussions of mental illness, Freud's case history of the Wolfman, and Australia's national anthems.
