Medical Man Helen Webster, 2016-01-12 Called out by a frightened country doctor in the dark night of a prairie winter in 1919 to assist with an emergency appendectomy Dr Robert Ross travels to an isolated farmhouse where he finds himself entangled in a tragedy He is immediately caught up in an ethical dilemma where all of his life experiences values and skills as a physician and surgeon are put to the test Is he about to become an unwilling accomplice to medical manslaughter What can he do to prevent the horror that is sure to ensue when another doctor's incompetence is matched with stubborn pride Robert was born in northern Quebec in 1871 the son and grandson of Hudson's Bay Company traders He grew up in the wilds of Quebec and northern Ontario becoming an HBC trader himself by the age of seventeen His survival skills and belief in himself were honed in these years and he had truly established himself as a lord of the wilderness by the turn of the century Medical Man begins in 1900 when Robert leaves the HBC to marry and to attend medical school at Queen's University in Kingston Ontario The central theme of this story is Robert's five decade long medical career during a century of remarkable discoveries in medicine that spans an era of powerful events and change in Canadian and World history www.helenwebster.ca

Knights on the Frontier Ana Echevarría, 2009 The kings of Castile maintained a personal cavalry guard through much of the fifteenth century consisting of practicing Muslims and converts to Christianity This privileged Muslim elite provides an interesting case study to propose new theories about voluntary conversion from Christianity to Islam in the Iberian Peninsula as well as the ways of assimilation of such a group into the local and courtly environments where they lived thereafter Other subjects involved are the transformation of royal armies from feudal companies to regimented professional forces including a well trained cavalry which in Castile was formed partly by these knights Their descendants had to endure the changing policies conveyed by Isabel and Fernando which increased discriminatory habits towards converts in Castilian society
