Qualitative Research Methodologies for Occupational Science and Occupational Therapy Shoba Nayar, Mandy Stanley, 2023-11-09 This comprehensive text provides a practical introduction to the range of qualitative methodologies and methods being used by occupational science and occupational therapy researchers today enabling readers to produce and critique high quality qualitative research themselves Showcasing a diverse range of qualitative research from both academic scholarship and the wider community of health professionals each chapter combines both foundational knowledge and therapeutic applications. Importantly, the book lucidly explains the synergy between research problem choice, methodology, and methods. It also fosters a best practice approach ensuring that qualitative research is epistemologically sound while reflecting the values and beliefs of the diverse communities within which research is conducted. This new edition, featuring an international range of authors, also addresses new and cutting edge research methodologies including Indigenous methodologies, netnography, the visual arts, and Big data. It is the ideal textbook for any student, practitioner, or researcher of occupational science and occupational therapy.

Essentials of Qualitative Inquiry Maria J. Mayan, 2023-05-16. The second edition of Maria J. Mayan's Essentials of Qualitative Inquiry is written for newcomers interested in applied research regardless of discipline. It provides what the reader needs to begin to explore, appreciate, and deeply understand our social world. The new edition maintains the straightforward conversational style and passionate support for qualitative work of the first edition while addressing numerous changes in the field. Mayan avoids paint-by-number formulas while helping novices learn many of the approaches, methodologies, and techniques used by experienced researchers. She helps readers confront the ambiguities and ethical issues in doing a field project and addresses some of the main debates in the field. After nearly three decades of teaching this subject herself, Mayan can anticipate and address the most common questions students will raise. Features of the new edition include: More emphasis on theoretical orientations; Added sections on arts-based research, mixed methods, systematic reviews, and participatory research; A unique approach to conducting qualitative analysis; Advice on self-care for the researcher; Summary tables, appendices with useful tools and templates, and practical exercises at the end of each chapter. This makes it the perfect vehicle to introduce students to the complex world of qualitative inquiry.

Doing Practice-based Research in Therapy Sofie Bager-Charleson, 2014-01-23. Learning how to use critical self-reflection creatively when practising therapy is an important component of training. This level of self-awareness is, however, often neglected in research despite the centrality of the researcher to their work. Doing Practice-based Research in Therapy: A Reflexive Approach makes the vital link between practical research skills and self-awareness, critical reflection, and personal development in practice-based research. Starting with a clear introduction to the theory, practice, and debates surrounding this type of research, the book then guides the reader step by step through the practicalities of the research process, encouraging them to reflect upon and evaluate their practice at each stage. The book incorporates case studies throughout to illustrate different methodological approaches, uses real-life examples from students conducting practice-based psychotherapy research, includes exercises, chapter objectives, end-of-chapter questions, and suggestions for further reading to help consolidate learning, encourages ongoing personal development by introducing personal development planning (PDP) and lifelong learning in the field of research. By demystifying the reflexive approach, this highly practical guide ensures that trainees and qualified therapists get the most, both professionally and personally, from their practice-based research.
