Baker, 2001-09 Reed's Sextant Simplified Dag Pike, 2003 The sextant is the treasured navigational device of generations of seamen and airmen It enables position to be determined with good accuracy for ocean navigation and it was the combination of sextant and chronometer that allowed safe navigation of the oceans for generations of seafarers Despite the accuracy and ease of use of electronic navigation systems every navigator should be able to use a sextant It could even save your life in the event of electronics failure This book describes how a sextant works provides practical tips and advice on using it explains how to read as well as take sights how to make adjustments and correct errors and finally advises on how to handle and care for the instrument Book jacket The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Ships Monthly, 2003 Sea Breezes, 2006 Demonic Bodies and the Dark Ecologies of Early Christian Culture Travis W. Nanos, Magnus Zetterholm, 2015 These chapters explore a number of issues in the contemporary study of Paul raised by questing what it means to read Paul from within Judaism rather than supposing that he left the practice and promotion of living Jewishly behind after his discovery of Jesus as Christ Messiah This is a different question to those which have driven the New Perspective over the last thirty years which still operates from many traditional assumptions about Pauls motives and behavior viewing them as inconsistent with and critical of Judaism Aging Heroes Norma Jones, Bob Batchelor, 2015-05-06 Despite the increasing number and variety of older characters appearing in film television comics and other popular culture much of the understanding of these figures has been limited to outdated stereotypes of aging These include depictions of frailty resistance to modern life and mortality More importantly these stereotypes influence the daily lives of aging adults as well as how younger generations perceive and interact with older individuals In light of our graying population and the growing diversity of portrayals of older characters in popular culture it is important to examine how we understand aging In Aging Heroes Growing Old in Popular Culture Norma Jones and Bob Batchelor present a collection of essays that address the increasing presence of characters that simultaneously manifest and challenge the accepted stereotypes of aging The contributors to this volume explore representations in television programs comic books theater and other forms of media The chapters include examinations of aging male and female actors who take on leading roles in such movies as Gran Torino Grudge Match Escape Plan Space Cowboys Taken and The Big Lebowski as well as The Expendables Red and X Men franchises Other chapters address perceptions of masculinity sexuality gender and race as manifested by such cultural icons as Superman Wonder Woman Danny Trejo Helen Mirren Betty White Liberace and Tyler Perry's Madea With multi disciplinary and accessible essays that encompass the expanding spectrum of aging and related stereotypes this book offers a broader range of new ways to understand perceive and think about aging Aging Heroes will be of interest to scholars of film television gender studies women's studies sociology aging studies and media studies as well as to general readers

Prehistory Joanna Brück, 2019-01-31 The Bronze Age is frequently framed in social evolutionary terms Viewed as the period which saw the emergence of social differentiation the development of long distance trade and the intensification of agricultural production it is seen as the precursor and origin point for significant aspects of the modern world This book presents a very different image of Bronze Age Britain and Ireland Drawing on the wealth of material from recent excavations as well as a long history of research it explores the impact of the post Enlightenment othering of the non human on our understanding of Bronze Age society There is much to suggest that the conceptual boundary between the active human subject and the passive world of objects so familiar from our own cultural context was not drawn in this categorical way in the Bronze Age the self was constructed in relational rather than individualistic terms and aspects of the non human world such as pots houses and mountains were considered animate entities with their own spirit or soul In a series of thematic chapters on the human body artefacts settlements and landscapes this book considers the character of Bronze Age personhood the relationship between individual and society and ideas around agency and social power The treatment and deposition of things such as querns axes and human remains provides insights into the meanings and values ascribed to objects and places and the ways in which such items acted as social agents in the Bronze Age world
