Peter Carey

Long Way From Home A Novel:

A Long Way from Home Claude McKay, 2007 McKay's account of his long odyssey from Jamaica to Harlem and then on to France Britain North Africa Russia and finally back to America As well as depicting his own experiences the author describes his encounters with such notable personalities as Charlie Chaplin George Bernard Shaw H G Wells Leon Trotsky W E B Du Bois Isadora Duncan Paul Robeson and Sinclair Lewis

A Long Way from Home Peter Carey, 2018-02-27 Irene Bobs loves fast driving Her husband is the best car salesman in southeastern Australia Together they enter the 1954 Redex Trial a weeks long endurance contest of a car race that circles the entire continent With them is their lanky fair haired navigator deposed quiz show champion and failed schoolteacher Willie Bachhuber If they win the Redex the Bobs name alone will get them a dealership and Willie will have recharged a life currently ground to a halt But before any of that might happen their official strip maps will lead them without warning out of the comfortable white Australia they know so well A breakneck often hilarious eye opening adventure that at the same time reminds us how white people took possession of a timeless culture the high purpose they invented and the crimes they committed along the way A Long Way from Home is Peter Carey's late style masterpiece

A Long Way from Home Janet Plummer, 2014-01-16 The reader is drawn into the world of a spirited little girl from the Caribbean as she journeys with her mother to a new country Sometimes funny sometimes sad her simple story tugs at the heart You will feel like you are right there sharing the newness and excitement of the adventure Children will relate to her raw emotions and adults will be captivated by her transparency and honesty A must read for all

A Long Way from Home Pat Sandiford Grygier, 1997-03-27 A comprehensive account of the tuberculosis epidemic among the Inuit in the mid part of the century The Inuit were victims not only of the epidemic but also of the Canadian government's shockingly slow response and lack of concern for their culture Grygier's focus is on patients experiences and the programs set up to deal with the epidemic rather than on a purely medical discussion of the disease and treatment Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

A Long Way from Home Tom Brokaw, 2002-11-05 Reflections on America and the American experience as he has lived and observed it by the bestselling author of The Greatest Generation whose iconic career in journalism has spanned more than fifty years From his parents life in the Thirties on to his boyhood along the Missouri River and on the prairies of South Dakota in the Forties into his early journalism career in the Fifties and the tumultuous Sixties up to the present this personal story is a reflection on America in our time Tom Brokaw writes about growing up and coming of age in the heartland and of the family the people the culture and the values that shaped him then and still do today His father Red Brokaw a genius with machines followed the instincts of Tom's mother Jean and took the risk of moving his small family from an Army base to Pickstown South Dakota where Red got a job as a heavy equipment operator in the Army Corps of Engineers project building the Ft Randall dam along the Missouri River Tom Brokaw describes how this move became the pivotal decision in their lives as the Brokaw family along with others after World War II began to live out the American Dream community relative prosperity middle class pleasures and good educations for their children Along the river and in the surrounding hills I had a Tom Sawyer boyhood Brokaw writes and as he describes his own pilgrimage as it unfolded from childhood to love marriage the early days in broadcast journalism and beyond he also reflects on what brought him and so many Americans of his generation to lead lives a long way from home yet forever affected by it Praise for A Long Way from Home A love letter to the people and places that enriched a Tom Sawyer boyhood Brokaw has a knack for delivering quirky observations on small town life Bottom line Tom s terrific People Breezy and straightforward much like the assertive TV newsman himself Los Angeles Times Brokaw writes with disarming honesty The Atlanta Journal Constitution Brokaw evokes a sense of community a pride of citizenship and a confidence in American ideals that will impress his readers Richmond Times Dispatch A Long Ways from Home Mike Martin,2016-08-22 A weekend visit to picturesque Newfoundland by a large crew of outlaw bikers leaves behind another mess for Sgt Windflower to clean up This time he s facing violence murder mystery and intrigue This adventure has Windflower questioning everything he thought he knew There are troubles on the home front cutbacks in the policing budget old friends leaving and new ones not quite here yet Windflower is seeking to find answers in territory that is both dangerous and unfamiliar This instalment in the Sgt Windflower Mystery series has our hero dashing all over the beautiful little island of Newfoundland Along the way he never wavers in his pursuit of justice But he stills tries to find a way to enjoy the natural beauty that lays all around him and to bring out the best from everybody he meets A Long Ways from Home is about more than just homicides or the dirty dealings of outlaw bikers It is also about helping people and communities face up to and overcome new and very difficult challenges Windflower relies on his friends and allies including some four legged ones to help him and them find the answers He also discovers that we are never really alone even when we are a long ways from home Long Way from Home Frederick Busch,1996-02-17 AM I YOUR MOTHER The headline screams out to Sarah from the pages of the personal ads Suddenly seized with an emergency feeling she abandons her husband Barrett and their six year old son Stephen to search for her biological mother in rural Pennsylvania Barrett convinced through intuition that Sarah has gone to Santa Fe deposits Stephen with his in laws and sets off in hot pursuit From these separate journeys begins a chain of events in which individual memories send a family in desperate search of itself and the shattering truth that awaits them From the author of Closing Arguments From the Trade Paperback edition American English Primary Colors 6 Activity Book Diana Hicks,Andrew Littlejohn,2008-04-14 American English Primary Colors is a new 6 level course for young learners from six to eleven years old This Activity Book covers all of the target language from Pupil s Book 6 providing further practice in a fun context Students can also gain a real sense of achievement by completing self evaluation sections Bob Henderson's Trails and Tales 4-Book Bundle Bob Henderson,2016-05-30 Hit the trails with naturalist and raconteur Bob Henderson in this four book bundle From folklore to heritage with a hefty dose of the Scandinavian outdoor living ethos of friluftsliv Henderson fires the imagination urging Ontarians to reignite their relationship with nature Includes Every Trail Has a Story More Trails More Tales Nature First Pike s Portage The Scouts of the Valley, a Story of Wyoming and the Chemung Joseph A. Altsheler,2017-07-19 The Scouts of the Valley a Story of Wyoming and the Chemung is a 1914 historical novel by Joseph A. Altsheler The story revolves around the exciting adventures of a young boy called Henry and his intrepid friends in the American Old West Joseph Alexander Altsheler 1862 1919 was an American journalist editor and author famous for his of popular historical fiction aimed at children Altsheler wrote a total of fifty one novels during his lifetime as well as over fifty short stories Other notable works by this author include The Sun of Saratoga a romance of Burgoyne s surrender 1897 and In Circling Camps a romance of the Civil War 1900 Many vintage books such as this are becoming increasingly scarce and expensive We are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern high quality edition complete with a specially commissioned new introduction and biography of the author The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi,2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume s 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others The Wiley Blackwell Anthology of African American Literature, Volume 2 Gene Andrew Jarrett,2014-01-28 The Wiley Blackwell Anthology of African American Literature is a comprehensive collection of poems short stories novellas novels plays autobiographies and essays authored by African Americans from the eighteenth century until the present Evenly divided into two volumes it is also the first such anthology to be conceived and published for both classroom and online education in the new millennium Reflects the current scholarly and pedagogic structure of African American literary studies Selects literary texts according to extensive research on classroom adoptions scholarship and the expert opinions of leading professors Organizes literary texts according to more appropriate periods of literary history dividing them into seven sections that accurately depict intellectual cultural and political movements Includes more reprints of entire works and longer selections of major works than any other anthology of its kind This second volume contains a comprehensive collection of texts authored by African Americans from the 1920s to the present The two volumes of this landmark anthology can also be bought as a set at over 20% savings

Claude McKay, Rebel Sojourner in the Harlem Renaissance Wayne F. Cooper,1996-02 Cooper paints a meticulous and absorbing portrait of McKay s restless artistic intellectual and political odyssey The definitive biography on McKay Choice Although recognized today as one of the genuine pioneers of black literature in this century the author of If We Must Die Home to Harlem Banana Bottom and A Long Way from Home among other works Claude McKay 1890 1948 died penniless and almost forgotten in a Chicago hospital In this masterly study Wayne Cooper presents a fascinating detailed account of McKay s complex chaotic and frequently contradictory life In his poetry and fiction as well as in his political and social commentaries McKay searched for a solid foundation for a valid black identity among the working class cultures of the West Indies and the United States He was an undeniably important predecessor to such younger writers of the Harlem Renaissance as Langston Hughes and Countee Cullen and also to influential West Indian and African writers such as C L R James and Aim C saire Knowledge of his life adds important dimensions to our understanding of American radicalism the expatriates of the 1920s and American literature Mr Cooper s most original contribution is his careful and perceptive analysis of McKay s nonfiction writing especially his social and political commentary which often contained prophetic statements on a range of important social political and historical issues New York Times Book Review

Staying Power Peter Fryer,1984 For this retrieval of the lost histories of black Britain Mr Fryer has my deep gratitude An invaluable book Salman Rushdie

The Dawn of a Dream (At Home in Beldon Grove Book #3) Ann Shorey,2011-04-01 Luellen O Connell is stunned and confused when her husband of just one month tells her he is leaving and that he has another wife Deeply wounded by this betrayal Luellen decides to follow the dream she had set aside of obtaining a teaching degree But her wayward husband left something behind when he abandoned her Can Luellen overcome the odds and achieve her dream Can she hide her secret or will it destroy her dreams forever A moving story of tenacity and perseverance in the face of opposition The Dawn of a Dream will inspire readers to discover and follow their own dreams

Jane Austen and the Creation of Modern Fiction Collins Hemingway,2024-05-23 Jane Austen s creative process has been largely unexamined This book explores her development as a writer what she adapted from tradition for her needs what she learned novel to novel how she used that learning in future works and how her ultimate mastery of fiction changed the course of English literature Jane Austen overcame the limitations of early fiction by pivoting from superficial adventures to the psychological studies that have defined the novel since Her creativity and technique grew as she wrestled with pragmatic writing issues This evaluation of Austen s creative process brings into focus the strengths and weaknesses of her six novels Each is examined in its use of major fictional techniques description scene building point of view and psychological development to reveal unique literary attributes The result is a revealing analysis of how world class fiction is built from the ground up Advanced Fiction Amy E. Weldon,2023-07-27 Confident with the basics of your craft Looking to take your writing to the next level Advanced Fiction gives you the tools to hone your skills by thinking more deeply and systematically about deploying them on the page Friendly and down to earth Amy Weldon guides you through the realities of craft and process combining a broad anthology of landmark stories with instruction on the more advanced aspects of fiction writing Featuring interactive prompts exercises and suggestions for further reading this book guides you from larger philosophical issues to subtler technical ones from topics as diverse as the intricate principles of storytelling to navigating artistic and political landscapes conscientiously and building a writing career Beginning with a brief recap of the basics the text goes on to examine The psychology of writing and revising Practical methods for drafting and notebook keeping Taking personal and technical risks with ideas images and forms Making responsible decisions about representing identities bodies and histories on the page Complex craft concepts such as world building structure time and moving from short forms to novels Placing students own work in conversation with established stories the accompanying anthology selections range widely in culture technique and time period including authors of dystopia historical fiction satire and fiction in translation as well as literary realists tackling themes like economic inequality climate change and identity Thoughtful and essential this book provides excellent guidance for students and budding authors on the complexities of fiction writing from the beginning of a writing project short story or novel to the end Autochthonomies Myriam J. A. Chancy,2020-03-01 In Autochthonomies Myriam J A Chancy engages readers in an interpretive journey She lays out a radical new process that invites readers to see creations by artists of African descent as legible within the context of African diasporic historical and cultural debates By invoking a transnational African diasporic lens and negotiating it through a lakou or yard space we can see such identities transfigured recognized and exchanged Chancy demonstrates how the process can examine the salient features of texts and art that underscore African diasporic sensibilities and render them legible What emerges is a potential for richer readings of African diasporic works that also ruptures the Manichean binary dynamics that have dominated previous interpretations of the material The result an enriching interpretive mode focused on the transnational connections between subjects of African descent as the central pole for reader investigation A bold challenge to established scholarship Autochthonomies ranges from Africa to Europe and the Americas to provide powerful new tools for charting the transnational interactions between African cultural producers and sites African American Autobiographers Emmanuel S. Nelson,2002-03-30 There is growing popular and scholarly interest in autobiography along with increasing regard for the achievements of African American writers The first reference of its kind this volume chronicles the autobiographical tradition in African American literature Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 66 African American authors who present autobiographical material in their works The volume profiles major figures such as Frederick Douglass Zora Neale Hurston

Richard Wright Maya Angelou James Baldwin and Malcolm X along with many lesser known autobiographers who deserve greater attention While some are known primarily for their literary accomplishments others have gained acclaim for their diverse contributions to society The entries are written by expert contributors and provide authoritative information about their subjects Each begins with a concise biography which summarizes the life and achievements of the autobiographer This is followed by a discussion of major autobiographical works and themes along with an overview of the autobiographer s critical reception The entries close with primary and secondary bibliographies and a selected general bibliography concludes the volume Together the entries provide a detailed portrait of the African American autobiographical tradition from the 18th century to the present

Literary and Cultural Representations of the Hinterlands Ewa Kębowska-Ławniczak, Dominika Ferens, Katarzyna Nowak-McNeice, Marcin Tereszewski, 2023-12-22 This interdisciplinary collection explores the diverse relationships between the frequently ignored and inherently ambiguous hinterlands and their manifestations in literature and culture Moving away from perspectives that emphasize the marginality of hinterlands and present them as devoid of agency and cultural currency this collection assembles a series of original essays using various modes of engagement to reconceptualize hinterlands and highlight their semiotic complexity Apart from providing a reassessment of hinterlands in terms of their geocultural significance this book also explores hinterlands through such concepts as nostalgia heterotopia identity formation habitation and cognitive mapping with reference to a wide geographical field Literary and filmic revisions of familiar hinterlands such as the Australian outback Alberta prairie and Arizona desert are juxtaposed in this volume with representations of such little known European hinterlands as Lower Silesia and Ukraine and the complicated political dimension of First World War internment camps is investigated with regard to Kapuskasing Ontario Rural China and the Sussex Downs are examined here as writers retreats Inner city hinterlands in Haiti India Morocco and urban New Jersey take on new meaning when contrasted with the vast hinterlands of megacities like Johannesburg and Los Angeles The spectrum of diverse approaches to hinterlands helps to reinforce their multilayered and multivocal nature as spaces that defy clear categorization
