What is Europe? The Open University, 1995-01-01 This 10 hour free course explored the different understandings of Europe that underlie the debates and disputes over the development of Europe Arming the Western Front Roger Lloyd-Jones, M.J. Lewis, 2016-06-10 The First World War was above all a war of logistics Whilst the conflict will forever be remembered for the mud and slaughter of the Western Front it was a war won on the factory floor as much as the battlefield Examining the war from an industrial perspective Arming the Western Front examines how the British between 1900 and 1920 set about mobilising economic and human resources to meet the challenge of industrial war Beginning with an assessment of the run up to war the book examines Edwardian business state relations in terms of armament supply It then outlines events during the first year of the war taking a critical view of competing constructs of the war and considering how these influenced decision makers in both the private and public domains This sets the framework for an examination of the response of business firms to the demand for shells more shells and their varying ability to innovate and manage changing methods of production and organisation The outcome a central theme of the book was a complex and evolving trade off between the quantity and quality of munitions supply an issue that became particularly acute during the Battle of the Somme in 1916 This deepened the economic and political tensions between the military the Ministry of Munitions and private engineering contractors as the pressure to increase output accelerated markedly in the search for victory on the western front The Great War created a dual army one in the field the other at home producing munitions and the final section of the book examines the tensions between the two as the country strove for final victory and faced the challenges of the transition to the peace time economy

Europe on the Path to Self-Destruction Jack L. Schwartzwald, 2022-07-19 Between the years 1815 and 1945 Europe achieved unrivaled global dominance only to see it shattered by two world wars This frenetic rise and fall was attended by immense societal change In 1815 Europe remained largely agricultural and dependent upon horsepower By 1945 the power of the atom had been unleashed Two industrial revolutions occurred in the interim the first founded upon coal iron and steam the second upon oil steel electricity and internal combustion The implications for humanity were profound This concise yet comprehensive study is divided into three sections In section one the map of Europe emerges in its modern visage as unrestrained nationalist fervor gives rise to an assemblage of new nation states In section two the continent attains global hegemony as massive industrialization fuels a mad scramble for colonial markets and raw materials In section three a cauldron of national ethnic and class hatreds spawn the rise of totalitarianism and the overthrow of European hegemony in two calamitous world wars By tracing the events and undercurrents of this vital period in European history this book offers trenchant insights for the lay reader and the student of history alike A

Comparative History of Commerce and Industry, Volume II David E. McNabb, 2016-01-26 A Comparative History of Commerce and Industry Volume II offers a subjective review of how the cultural social and economic institutions of commerce and industry evolved in industrialized nations to produce the institution we now know as business enterprise

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006 German Thought and International Relations R. Shilliam, 2009-03-26 A fundamental question for IR is whether the value system of liberalism can be universalized or if in fact the illiberal reality of international politics systematically rules out such a universalisation The book addresses this issue by focusing on the rise and fall of a specific liberal project supported by influential German intellectuals History , 1975

Bulletin , 1995 Empires of Vice Diana S. Kim, 2021-08-10 A Shared Turn Opium and the Rise of Prohibition The Different Lives of Southeast Asia s Opium Monopolies Morally Wrecked in British Burma 1870s 1890s Fiscal Dependency in British Malaya 1890s 1920s Disastrous Abundance in French Indochina 1920s 1940s Colonial Legacies Theatricality Tracy C. Davis, Thomas Postlewait, 2003 This collection of specially commissioned accessible essays explores that element of performance theory known as theatricality Six case studies use historically specific circumstances to illustrate how and why the concept of theatricality was and is used Topics discussed include early use of the term employment of theatricality by a number of other disciplines to describe events non Western interpretation of theatricality and its use when discussing and analyzing political and cultural events and philosophies The book provides a first step guide for those discovering the complex yet rewarding world of performance theory The Historian , 1986 Foundations of Managing British Olympics

Alex G. Gillett, Kevin D. Tennent, 2025-09-04 This interdisciplinary study examines the organisation administration and public benefits of Olympic Games in the United Kingdom In particular the study will examine the events of the twentieth century the 1908 and 1948 Olympic Games drawing upon archive materials Diskurse und Praktiken der Schulbuchproduktion in der Bundesrepublik Deutschland und England am Beispiel von Afrikawissen Lars Müller, 2021-11-15 Was ist aus Schulbuchern der Afrika zu lernen und woher kommen diese Wissensbestände Schulbuchproduktion wird in diesem Band als Knotenpunkt gesellschaftlicher Diskurse und Praktiken verstanden und Schulbuchwissen im Kontext seiner

Produktionsbedingungen sowie der gesellschaftlichen Debatten analysiert Mit Blick auf die Schulbuchproduktion wird gezeigt dass die Vorstellung dass Schulbücher in einem Top down Modell produziert werden relativiert werden muss Zudem wird sichtbar wie viele unterschiedliche Akteurinnen und Akteure im Bildungsbereich um Afrikawissen rangen Lars M ller zeichnet das Spektrum des Sagbaren in Bezug auf Afrikawissen nach und zeigt wie sich manche Wissensbestände durchsetzten und andere randständig blieben What can we learn about Africa from textbooks and where does this knowledge originate This study locates textbook production at the intersection of societal discourse and practice and analyses textbook knowledge in the context of its production conditions as well as debates within society Focusing particularly on textbook production M ller s study critically questions the common assumption that textbooks are produced in a top down model and calls for this premise to be relativised It also shows how many different actors contend to define knowledge about Africa within the education sector Ultimately this book traces the spectrum of what is considered utterable in regard to knowledge about Africa and shows how certain knowledge corpora have become prominent and others marginalised Austria, Prussia and Germany, 1806-1871 John Breuilly, 2002 In this survey of an important period in European history John Breuilly examines the influences and events that resulted in the formation of the German nation state under Prussian dominance
