Three plucky women lift the spirits of home front brides in wartime Britain where clothes rationing leaves little opportunity for pomp or celebration even at weddings in this heartwarming novel based on true events from the bestselling author of The Chilbury Ladies Choir. After renowned fashion designer Cressida Westcott loses both her home and her design house in the London Blitz, she has nowhere to go but the family manor house she fled decades ago. Praying that her niece and nephew will be more hospitable than her brother had been, she arrives with nothing but the clothes she stands in at a loss as to how to rebuild her business while staying in a quaint country village. Her niece Violet Westcott is thrilled that her famous aunt is coming to stay; the village has been interminably dull with all the men off fighting. But just as Cressida arrives, so does Violet's conscription letter. It couldn't have come at a worse time: how will she ever find a suitably aristocratic husband if she has to spend her days wearing a frumpy uniform and doing war work? Meanwhile, the local vicar's daughter, Grace Carlisle, is trying in vain to repair her mother's gown, her only chance of a white wedding. When Cressida Westcott appears at the local Sewing Circle meeting, Grace asks for her help, but Cressida has much more to teach the ladies than just simple sewing skills. Before long, Cressida's spirit and ambition galvanizes the village group into action, and they find themselves mending wedding dresses not only for local brides but for brides across the country. And as the women dedicate themselves to helping others celebrate love, they might even manage to find it for themselves.

The Enlightenment of Work Steve Nobel, 2012-01-01

Work affects most of us at some point in our lives Work can be a source of growth connection and purpose but too often it is a source of feeling aimless bullied or manipulated Sometimes it comes through overarching ambition striving to climb up the corporate ladder only to find it is leaning in the wrong direction There are degrees of emotional and physical suffering when we feel anger misery and unhappiness with unenlightened work The Enlightenment of Work is about ending that suffering This book is essential for anyone wishing to Transform your suffering at work Suffering can come in many ways It can come through feeling aimless and bored where the only reason for being there is to collect a salary each month It can come through stress overwork and burnout This book offers a simple philosophy suffering happens but we can transform that suffering Realise their innate gifts talents and purpose Most work disconnects us from knowing our authentic self our essence or soul Trust your courage ideas intuition and discover your true self Reclaim their time Time is your most precious resource and one you cannot afford to waste However many of us work in busy environments that leave little time for real thinking or reflection or for doing anything very new or interesting Busy and idle minds can get locked into different forms of anxiety about the past and the future The changing world of work demands emotional and spiritual intelligence No one has to stay with work that oppresses the spirit This new world is about choice
