Chicken Soup for the Single's Soul Jack Canfield,Mark Victor Hansen,2012-08-14 Singles are coming into their own Each year more and more people are single either by choice or by circumstance This book celebrates the joys and challenges of living life single Circle ,1908 Lianda John Israel,1999-01-01 In the summer of 1937 Japanese troops occupied the campuses of Beijing's two leading universities Beida and Qinghua and reduced Nankai in Tianjin to rubble These were China's leading institutions of higher learning run by men educated in the West and committed to modern liberal education The three universities first moved to Changsha 900 miles southwest of Beijing where they joined forces But with the fall of Nanjing in mid December many students left to fight the Japanese who soon began bombing Changsha In February 1938 the 800 remaining students and faculty made the thousand mile trek to Kunming in China's remote mountainous southwest where they formed the National Southwest Associated University Lianda In makeshift quarters subject to sporadic bombing by the Japanese and shortages of food books and clothing students and professors did their best to conduct a modern university In the next eight years many of China's most prominent intellectuals taught or studied at Lianda This book is the story of their lives and work under extraordinary conditions Lianda's wartime saga crystallized the experience of a generation of Chinese intellectuals beginning with epic journeys followed by years of privation and endurance and concluding with politicization polarization and radicalization as China moved from a war of resistance against a foreign foe to a civil war pitting brother against brother The Lianda community which had entered the war fiercely loyal to the government of Chiang Kai shek emerged in 1946 as a bastion of criticism of China's ruling Guomindang party Within three years the majority of the Lianda community now returned to its north China campuses in Beijing and Tianjin was prepared to accept Communist rule In addition to struggling for physical survival Lianda's faculty and students spent the war years striving to uphold a model of higher education in which modern universities based in large part on the American model sought to preserve liberal education political autonomy and academic freedom Successful in the face of wartime privations enemy air raids and Guomindang pressure Lianda's constituent universities eventually succumbed to Communist control. By 1952 the Lianda ideal had been replaced with a politicized and technocratic model borrowed from the Soviet Union.

Racing for America James C. Nicholson, 2021-04-06 On October 20, 1923, at Belmont Park in New York, Kentucky Derby champion Zev toed the starting line alongside Epsom Derby winner Papyrus, the top colt from England, to compete for a $100,000 purse. Years of Progressive reform efforts had nearly eliminated horse racing in the United States only a decade earlier. But for weeks leading up to the match race that would be officially dubbed the International, unprecedented levels of newspaper coverage helped accelerate American horse racing's return from the brink of extinction. In this book, James C. Nicholson explores the convergent professional lives of the major players involved in the Horse Race of the Century, including Zev's oil tycoon owner, Harry Sinclair, and exposes the central role of politics, money, and ballyhoo in the Jazz Age resurgence of the sport of kings. Zev was an apt national mascot in an era marked by a humming industrial economy, great coziness between government and business interests, and reliance on national mythology as a bulwark against what seemed to be rapid social, cultural, and economic changes. Reflecting some of the contradiction and incongruity of the Roaring Twenties, Americans rallied around the horse that was in the words of his owner, racing for America, even as that owner was reported to have been engaged in a scheme to defraud the United States of millions of barrels of publicly owned oil. Racing for America provides a parabolic account of a nation struggling to reconcile its traditional values with the complexity of a new era in which the US had become a global superpower trending toward oligarchy and the world's greatest consumer of commercialized spectacle.
