Lovers Knot:

The Keystone, 1921 Chaucer and Clothing Laura Fulkerson Hodges, 2005 A detailed discussion of the meaning and significance of the terms used to describe the clothing of Chaucer's religious and academic pilgrims Religious and academic dress in the middle ages functioned as a metaphorical signifier of spiritual and intellectual standards implied a given social status signalled the rejection or possession of garment wealth and in the details suggested the wearer's spiritual state This book presents the first sustained analysis of the characterizing dress worn by Chaucer's pilgrims who are in holy orders and or affiliated with universities the author uses approaches from a variety of disciplines received criticism of late medieval literature developments in political economic and social history the visual arts and material culture in order to present the complex ideas and rhetoric the pilgrims dress expresses She also makes the religious intellectual and material culture of Chaucer's day accessible to modern audiences through the reconstruction of the significance of fabrics dyes accessories garments and assembled costumes and an explanation of technical details and specialist vocabularies for cloth making clothing accessories and their images in the visual arts Convict Tattoos Simon Barnard, 2016-08-29 At least thirty seven per cent of male convicts and fifteen per cent of female convicts were tattooed by the time they arrived in the penal colonies making Australians quite possibly the world's most heavily tattooed English speaking people of the nineteenth century Each convict's details including their tattoos were recorded when they disembarked providing an extensive physical account of Australia's convict men and women Simon Barnard has meticulously combed through those records to reveal a rich pictorial history Convict Tattoos explores various aspects of tattooing from the symbolism of tattoo motifs to inking methods from their use as means of identification and control to expressions of individualism and defiance providing a fascinating glimpse of the lives of the people behind the records Simon Barnard was born and grew up in Launceston He spent a lot of time in the bush as a boy which led to an interest in Tasmanian history He is a writer illustrator and collector of colonial artifacts He now lives in Melbourne He won the Eve Pownall Award for Information Books in the 2015 Children's Book Council of Australia's Book of the Year awards for his first book A-Z of Convicts in Van Diemen's Land Convict Tattoos is his second book The early years of penal settlement have been recounted many times yet Convict Tattoos genuinely breaks new ground by examining a common if neglected feature of convict culture found among both male and female prisoners Australian This niche subject has proved fertile ground for Barnard who is ink free by providing a glimpse into the lives of the people behind the historical records revealing something of their thoughts feelings and experiences Mercury The best thing to happen in Australian tattoo history since Cook landed A must have for any tattoo historian Brett Stewart Australian Tattoo Museum
