Everybody's Pepys Samuel Pepys, 1926 Samuel Pepys FRS MP JP pron pi ps 1 23 February 1633 26 May 1703 was an English naval administrator and Member of Parliament who is now most famous for the diary he kept for a decade while still a relatively young man Although Pepys had no maritime experience he rose by patronage hard work and his talent for administration to be the Chief Secretary to the Admiralty under both King Charles II and subsequently King James II His influence and reforms at the Admiralty were important in the early professionalisation of the Royal Navy 2 The detailed private diary Pepys kept from 1660 until 1669 was first published in the 19th century and is one of the most important primary sources for the English Restoration period It provides a combination of personal revelation and eyewitness accounts of great events such as the Great Plague of London the Second Dutch War and the Great Fire of London Wikipedia

Slow Dreams Miles Lowry, 1995 Slow Dreams evokes those trance like ideas that linger upon awakening in the middle of the night Lowry's approach has always been multi disciplinary fulfilling a need to find affinities and reveal meanings through often startling combinations of word and image

Memory and Representation Dena Elisabeth Eber, Arthur G. Neal, 2001 Eber and Neal address some of the theoretical issues connected with symbolic constructions of reality through human memory and its subsequent representation Linkages between what we remember and how we represent it give humans their distinctive characteristics We construct our reality from how we perceive the events in our lives and from that reality we create a symbol system to describe our world It is through such symbolic constructions that we are provided with a usable backdrop for shaping our memories and organizing them into meaningful lines of action These case studies present a new and creative synthesis of the multiple meanings of memory and representation within the context of contemporary perceptions of truth
