Loves Of Joao Vencio:

The Loves of João Vêncio José Luandino Vieira, 1991      A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín González, César Domínguez, 2010

A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association. As its predecessor for East Central Europe, this two-volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter-literary relations. Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested. Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field, this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula. The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda. A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo-cultural account of literary inter-systems which cannot otherwise be explained.

Multiculturalism & Hybridity in African Literatures African Literature Association. Meeting, 2000. This volume of essays covers all phases and geographical areas of African literature including lesser-known areas such as oral literature, literature written in African languages, and Lusophone literature. Also included are articles on Caribbean literature, developments in South African theatre, and two articles on African film. Several writers receive special attention: Chinua Achebe, Maryse Conde, Wole Soyinka, Niyi Osundare, Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, and Hampate Ba. Also included are the keynote addresses by Achebe, Conde, and Osundare.

Lusophone Africa Fernando Arenas, 2011. Situates the cultures of Portuguese-speaking Africa within the postcolonial global era.

How Peripheral is the Periphery? Translating Portugal Back and Forth João Ferreira Duarte, Rita Bueno Maia, Marta Pacheco Pinto, 2015-09-18. This volume is a result of the need to reflect upon Portugal's position from the viewpoint of the literary assets imported and exported through translation. It brings together a number of scholars working in the field of Translation Studies directly concerned with the Portuguese cultural system in order to analyse this question from various theoretical perspectives and from case studies of translation flows and movements in Portuguese culture. By Translating Portugal Back and Forth, the articles discuss issues such as how can one draw the borderline between a peripheral and a semi-peripheral system? Is this borderline useful or necessary? How peripheral is the Portuguese cultural system as far as translation transfers are concerned? How stable or pacific has this positioning been? Does the economic and historical perception of Portugal as peripheral entail that from the viewpoint of translation it would behave similarly? By addressing some of these questions and as shown by the second subtitle, Essays in Honour of João Ferreira Duarte, the volume pays homage to one of the most prominent Translation Studies scholars in Portugal who has extensively reflected on the binary discourse on translation, its metaphors and images.

Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions The Complete Review Guide to Contemporary World Fiction M.A. Orthofer, 2016-04-19 A user friendly reference for English language readers who are eager to explore contemporary fiction from around the world Profiling hundreds of titles and authors from 1945 to today with an emphasis on fiction published in the past two decades this guide introduces the styles trends and genres of the world s literatures from Scandinavian crime thrillers and cutting edge Chinese works to Latin American narco fiction and award winning French novels The book s critical selection of titles defines the arc of a country s literary development Entries illuminate the fiction of individual nations cultures and peoples while concise biographies sketch the careers of noteworthy authors Compiled by M A Orthofer an avid book reviewer and the founder of the literary review site the Complete Review this reference is perfect for readers who wish to expand their reading choices and knowledge of contemporary world fiction A bird s eye view of titles and authors from everywhere a book overfull with reminders of why we love to read international fiction Keep it close by Robert Con Davis Udiano executive director World Literature Today M A Orthofer has done more to bring literature in translation to America than perhaps any other individual This book will introduce more new worlds to you than any other book on the market Tyler Cowen George Mason University A relaxed riverine guide through the main currents of international writing with sections for more than a hundred countries on six continents Karan Mahajan Page Turner blog The New Yorker Culture and Customs of Angola Adebayo O. Oyebade, 2006-11-30 Angola has been brutalized by the civil war which only ended in 1992 The war s adverse effect on every facet of Angola s post independence life is clearly evident in the range of topics covered in this volume The human cost of the war can be counted in the enormous loss of life and large scale population displacement and in the continued postwar deaths and serious injuries inflicted by mines The war also severely stunted economic growth and the development of necessary social services However since the end of the war Angola is slowly progressing Many people have returned to their homes to continue their life The task of rebuilding has been greatly assisted by humanitarian aid Readers will learn about the nearly 100 ethnolinguistic groups and their various ways of life Oyeade shows how religion defines the cultural character of the country Christianity the dominant religion is portrayed as more urban based popular among the educated elite and middle class Indigenous religious practices still popular particularly in the rural areas are covered as well Oyeade celebrates the prolific Portuguese language literary output and the skilled Angolan artists Discussion of the traditional foods ceremonies music and dance and more rounds out the coverage Historical Dictionary of Angola W. Martin James, 2018-03-01 Angola slowly recovering from a twenty seven year civil war is becoming a regional super power in southern Africa This rise can be attributed to oil diamonds a battle tested armed forces and a political system that is dominated by one party the Movimento Popular de Libertação de Angola the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola MPLA Problems remain to be solved The vast wealth is in the control of the elite while the vast majority of the people live on less than two dollars per day Corruption is rife the health and education system in shambles landmines remain a festering problem and the opposition is intimidated and split into various factions President Eduardo dos Santos who has ruled Angola for almost thirty eight years has opted not to run for re election in the August 2017 elections Instead his hand picked successor João Lourenço was elected president Interestingly dos Santos has not surrendered his presidency of the party This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Angola contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Angola Global Impact of the Portuguese Language Asela de Laguna, 2018-01-16 Within the cultural and literary context of contemporary Portugal and Western literature 1998 was unquestionably the year that Portuguese writing gained international recognition as José Saramago became the first Portuguese writer ever to receive the Nobel Prize in literature Readers who had never thought about Portuguese letters began to consume his books and most importantly opted for expanding their reading lists to include other important writers not only from Portugal but from Portuguese speaking well beyond the borders of Portugal Global Impact of the Portuguese Language is a collection of Portuguese writing that is as rich in content and broad in scope as the diversity of its topics and writing modes of its contributors The book is divided into three major parts Part 1 Different Cultural Perspectives of Portuguese Writing contains thirteen chapters in which the first and opening one Portugal The New Frontier ably sets the stage for the book by examining from a cultural perspective how Portugal a peripheral country in the new world system serves as a microcosm of the problems of cultural intercommunication in today's world Subsequent chapters are grouped in three categories The Voices of the Writers Critical Approaches to Canons and Fictionalizing the Nation Part 2 Portuguese Language and Literature Outside Portugal comprises one section devoted to the Portuguese language in Africa followed by studies about Portuguese discoveries as part of the historical process of remembering and forging one's identity and finally a comprehensive historical development of Portuguese writing both in Portuguese and English in the United States Part 3 Portuguese Literature and Criticism Available in English Suggested Readings details the recent literary happenings which point to a possible renaissance in Portuguese literary production The concluding part of this volume offers a short comprehensive listing of anthologies general studies and the most popular translations of the best of Portuguese writing from Portugal and Africa This lively volume constitutes a first pioneering effort to contribute to a deepening appreciation and understanding of Portuguese writing Anyone interested in ethnic writing will find this book an invaluable education resource with which to begin an exploration of Portuguese writing in the United States Asela Rodriguez de Laguna is associate professor of Spanish and director of the Hispanic Civilization Language Studies Program She is the author of Notes on Puerto Rican Literature Images and Identities An Introduction and editor of Images and Identities The Puerto Rican in Two World Contexts Translocal Modernisms Maria Irene Ramalho Sousa Santos,Irene Ramalho Santos,António Sousa Ribeiro,2008 The full story of modernism is yet to be written This collection of essays provides an important page in this complex and inconclusive story of fluidities and hybridities by rendering problematical the linear sequence from modernism to postmodernism This book explores the many facets of modernism in a variety of essays written by an international group of scholars It deals with and puts in question the western literary tradition in many of its transcontinental and trans hemispheric encounters Criticism of high modernism is put in perspective by discussions of German reactionary modernism American social modernism and minor arts mid twentieth century Baudelairean modernity and unprecedented expansions of the concepts of modernity and modernism themselves Engaging in dialogue with the newest geographical transnational and global enlargements of the concept of modernism in time and space from the Middle Passage to emergent cultures of the twenty first century from Europe to America Africa and Asia the volume covers a wide range of translocal and transtemporal literary artistic cultural and social fields and perspectives The Last Train to Zona Verde Paul Theroux,2013-05-07 The acclaimed author of Dark Star Safari journeys across western Africa in this thoroughly engrossing and at times tragic travelogue Washington Post Paul Theroux s best selling Dark Star Safari chronicled his epic overland voyage from Cairo to Cape Town providing an insider s look at modern Africa Now with The Last Train to Zona Verde he returns to discover how both he and Africa have changed in the ensuing years Traveling alone Theroux sets out from Cape Town going north through South Africa Namibia then into Angola encountering a world increasingly removed from tourists itineraries and the hopes of postcolonial independence movements After covering nearly 2 500 arduous miles Theroux cuts short his journey a decision he chronicles with unsparing honesty in a chapter titled What Am I Doing Here Vivid witty and beautifully evocative The Last Train to Zona Verde is a fitting final African adventure from the writer whose gimlet eye and effortless prose have brought the world to generations of readers If this book is proof age has not slowed Theroux or encouraged him to rest on his achievements Gutsy alert to Africa s struggles its injustices and history San Francisco Chronicle Dictionary of African

Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 African Writers C. Brian Cox, 1997 Annotation The Scribner Writers Series has set the standard for literary reference for more than 25 years In addition to addressing the lives and careers of important writers the articles discuss the themes and styles of major works and place them in pertinent historical social and political contexts for today's readers Novelists playwrights essayists poets short story writers and more recently genre writers in science fiction and mystery are all expertly discussed in the more than 16 sets comprising this series Two volumes of original essays present 65 African writers from 17 countries writing in English French Portuguese Arabic and indigenous languages Subjects span the late 19th century to the present Included are Najib Mahfuz Andre Brink Wole Soyinka Nadine Gordimer Alan Paton and many more International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i.e. the reader's knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism
