The Renaissance of Lesbianism in Early Modern England Valerie Traub,2002-06-06 The Renaissance of Lesbianism in Early Modern England is the eagerly awaited study by the feminist scholar who was among the first to address the issue of early modern female homoeroticism Valerie Traub analyzes the representation of female female love desire and eroticism in a range of early modern discourses including poetry drama visual arts pornography and medicine Contrary to the silence and invisibility typically ascribed to lesbianism in the Renaissance Traub argues that the early modern period witnessed an unprecedented proliferation of representations of such desire By means of sophisticated interpretations of a comprehensive set of texts the book not only charts a crucial shift in representations of female homoeroticism over the course of the seventeenth century but also offers a provocative genealogy of contemporary lesbianism A contribution to the history of sexuality and to feminist and queer theory the book addresses current theoretical preoccupations through the lens of historical inquiry Whitman Possessed Mark Maslan,2003-04-01 Whitman has long been more than a celebrated American author He has become a kind of hero whose poetry vindicates beliefs not only about poetry but also about sexuality and power In Whitman Possessed Poetry Sexuality and Popular Authority Mark Maslan presents a challenging theory of Whitman's poetics of possession and his understandings of individual and national identity By reading his works in relation to nineteenth century theories of sexual desire poetic inspiration and political representation Maslan argues that the disintegration of individuality in Whitman's texts is not meant to undermine cultural hierarchies but to make poetic and political authority newly viable In particular Maslan explores the social impact of nineteenth century sexual hygiene literature on Whitman's works He argues that Whitman developed his ideas about poetry sexuality and authority by responding to a prominent argument that desire subjected male bodies to a penetrating and feminizing force By identifying poetic inspiration with this erotic dynamic Whitman imbued his poetic voice with a kind of transformative power Whitman aligned his poetry with an impartial authority hard to find elsewhere and inclined his work as a poet to speak for the voiceless for the masses and for an entire nation

The Shipwreck Sea Jeffrey M. Duban,2019-04-12 Sappho in the words of poet Algernon Charles Swinburne 1837 1909 was simply nothing less as she is certainly nothing more than the greatest poet who ever was at all Born over 2 600 years ago on the Greek island of Lesbos Sappho the namesake lesbian wrote amorously of men and women alike exhibiting both masculine and feminine tendencies in her poetry and life What's left of her writing and what we know of her is fragmentary and thus ever subject to speculation and study The Shipwreck Sea highlights the love poetry of the soulful Sappho the impassioned Ibycus and the playful Anacreon among other Greek lyric poets of the age 7th to 5th centuries BC with verse translations into English by author Jeffrey Duban The book also features selected Latin poets who wrote on erotic themes Catullus Lucretius Horace and Petronius and poems by Charles Baudelaire with his milestone rejoinder to lesbian love Lesbos and in the same stanzaic meter a turn to the consoling power of memory in love's more frequently tormented recall Le Balcon Duban also translates selected Carmina Burana of Carl Orff the poems frequently Anacreontic in spirit The book's essays include a comprehensive analysis with a new translation of Horace's famed Odes 1-5 To Pyrrha in which the theme of love's shipwreck predominates and an opening treatise length argument exploring painting sculpture literature and other Western art forms on the irrelevance of gender to artistic creation No Homer was not a woman and it would make no difference if she were Twenty full color artwork reproductions masterpieces in their own right illustrate and bring Duban's argument to life Finally Duban presents a selection of his own love poems imitations and pastiches written over a lifetime these composed in the classical mode which is the leitmotif of this volume The Shipwreck Sea is a delightful and continually thought provoking companion to The Lesbian Lyre both books vividly demonstrating that classicism yet thrives in our time despite the modernism marshaled against it

Women Writers of the Renaissance and Reformation Katharina M. Wilson, 1987 The dawn of humanism in the Renaissance presented privileged women with great opportunities for personal and intellectual growth Sexual and social roles still determined the extent to which a woman could pursue education and intellectual accomplishment but it was possible through the composition of poetry or prose to temporarily offset hierarchies of gender to become equal to men in the act of creation Edited by Katharina M Wilson this anthology introduces the works of twenty five women writers of the Renaissance and Reformation among them Marie Dentre a Swiss evangelical reformer whose writings were so successful they were banned during her lifetime Gaspara Stampa a cultivated courtesan of Venetian aristocratic circles who wrote lyric poetry that has earned her comparisons to Michelangelo and Tasso H lisenne de Crenne a French aristocrat who embodied the true spirit of the Renaissance feminist writing both as novelist and as champion of her sex Helene Kottanner Austrian chambermaid to Queen Elizabeth of Hungary whose memoirs recall her daring theft of the Holy Crown of Saint Stephen for her esteemed mistress and Lady Mary Sidney Wroth the first Englishwoman known to write a full length work of fiction and compose a significant body of secular poetry Offering a seldom seen counterpoint to literature written by men Women Writers of the Renaissance and Reformation presents prose and poetry that have never before appeared in English as well as writings that have rarely been available to the nonspecialist The women whose writings are included here are united by a keen awareness of the social limitations placed upon their creative potential of the strained relationship between their gender and their work This concern invests their writings with a distinctive voice one that carries the echoes of a male aesthetic while boldly declaring battle against it Emotions of the Heart D.L.S.,2012-02-16 D L S had not written a poem for many years after that After Her Father s death on February 14 2004 She had started to write again Feeling the emotional pain of a lost that was so close to her Her dad was her best friend in life and mentor She had to fi nd an out let for her pain and the feelings she had been keeping locked up inside She found writing poetry to be the best way to express her emotional feelings Her poetry tells the emotion of lost love and the emotions of life it s self Whether it be good bad or even Happy Her poetry express her feelings To her own personal experience of life and love that has been found or lost of It s all about the emotion s of love lost love found and most of all Love of friends and family Metallurgy and Its Influence on Modern Progress Robert Abbott Hadfield,1925 Musicking Shakespeare Daniel Albright,2007 In this book Albright one of today s most intrepid explorers of the border territory between literature and music offers insights into how composers of genius can help us to understand Shakespeare Sarah Kane: Complete Plays Sarah Kane,2001-01-01 This volume contains the complete collection of Sarah Kane s plays including Blasted Phaedra s Love Cleansed Crave 4 48 Psychosis and Skin The Futures of Medieval French Jane Gilbert,Miranda Griffin,2021 Essays on aspects of medieval French literature celebrating the scholarship of Sarah Kay and her influence on the field Sarah Kay is one of the most influential medievalists of the past fifty years making vital theoretically informed interventions on material from early medieval chansons de geste through troubadour lyric to late medieval philosophy and poetry in French Occitan Latin and Italian This volume in her honour is organised around her six major monographs published between 1990 and 2017

Its essays engage in critical constructive dialogue with different aspects of Kay's work and envisage how these might shape medieval French as a discipline in coming years or decades. The subject matters demonstrate the richness of the discipline: animal studies, musicology, temporality, the material turn, medieval textuality, feminism, queer theory, voice, medieval and modern intellectual formations, psychoanalysis, philology, visual arts, transversal criticism, the literary object, affect, rhetoric, body, the past, modern responses to medieval forms and tropes, non-Christian texts and thought patterns, politics. Reiterating Kay's engagement with medieval literature's complex philosophical debates and analytical scrutiny of human knowledge and affect, they follow her in emphasising how the pleasure of reading medieval literature depends crucially on that literature's intellectual robustness. These essays shed new light on a range of canonical and less well-known medieval texts and artefacts to present a fresh perspective on the field of medieval studies.

The Legacy of Courtly Literature Deborah Nelson-Campbell, Rouben Cholakian, 2017-11-17 This fascinating volume examines the enduring influence of courtly tradition and courtly love particularly in contemporary popular culture. The ten chapters explore topics including the impact of the medieval troubadour in modern love songs, the legacy of figures such as Tristan, Iseult, Lancelot, Guinevere and Merlin in modern film and literature, and more generally how courtly and chivalric conceptions of love have shaped the Western world's conception of love, loyalty, honor and adultery throughout history, and to this day.

Cruelty and Desire in the Modern Theater Laurens De Vos, 2011-04-18 Departing from a refreshing look at the ideas of Antonin Artaud, this book provides a thorough analysis of how both Sarah Kane and Samuel

Beckett are indebted to his legacy In juxtaposing these playwrights De Vos minutely points out how both in their own way struggle with coming to terms with Artaud A key concept in Lacanian psychoanalytic theories desire lies at the root of the Theatre of Cruelty Kane and Beckett prove that desire and cruelty are inextricably linked to one another but that they appear in radically different disguises Relying on Kane and Beckett this book not only sheds a light on the precise intentions behind Artaud s project it also maps out the structural parallels and dichotomies between the Theatre of Cruelty and the literary genre of tragedy Immediately after the premiere of Sarah Kane s Blasted in 1995 some reviewers made a link with Antonin Artaud s Theatre of Cruelty These parallels however were solely based on the abundance of physical violence on stage In response to these assertions this book traces minutely Artaud s legacy for later generations Making use of Jacques Lacan s psychoanalytical ideas as a theoretical framework De Vos defines Artaud s project not so much in terms of blood and goriness but rather as a theater of Passion revolving around notions as desire love and the subjectile a concept that was drawn attention to by Derrida In addition the idea of the scapegoat delineated by Ren Girard provides a leg up to clarify the intrinsic parallels as well as divergences between the Theatre of Cruelty and tragedy while also Lacan s analysis of Antigone is being looked at Phaedra s Love Cleansed and 4 48 Psychosis are extensively dealt with in this study and point out the development Kane went through in her short but at the same time long trajectory The third part on Beckett focuses primarily on Krapp s Last Tape and Not I and equally so calls in Lacan to understand self alienation and self conceptua

Constructions of Female Homoeroticism in Early Modern Drama D. Walen,2005-09-16 This book explores representations of love and desire between female characters in nearly seventy plays written between 1580 and 1660 The work argues that playwrights of late sixteenth and early seventeenth century England recognized and constructed richly diverse tropes of female homoerotic desire Writers place female characters in erotic situations with other female characters in playful scenarios of mistaken identity in anxious moments of amorous intrigue in predatory situations and in enthusiastic utopian representations of romantic love These plays indicate an awareness of female homoeroticism in early modern England and belie statements that literary evidence of homosexuality was concerned primarily with men
