Love's Inferno Edward Stilgebauer,1916 The Queens of Aragon E. L. Miron,1913 Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ... Wherein the Copyright Has Been Completed by the Deposit of Two Copies in the Office Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1909 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1958 Reader and Shakespeare's Young Man Sonnets Gerald Hammond,1981-06-18 Get to the End Michael Hickey,2016-03-07 Get to the End is written about the end times i e the end of the world and history as we know it But it is written from a Catholic perspective There are many books on the market that speak to the end times however they are all written from a Protestant perspective and for the most part they are written by Christians from conservative churches who are generally Fundamentalist Christians There are virtually no books written about the end times from a Catholic perspective The few that have been written with a Catholic perspective of the end times have been written for the most part by Catholic priests and they are generally weighed down heavily in doctrine and dogma This will be one of the first on the subject written by a Catholic layman who has a broader perspective than Catholic Doctrine and Dogma and who views himself as uniquely in the world but not of the world The Priceless Thing Marion Nicholl Rawson,1914 The Romance of an Elderly Poet Alexander Meyrick Broadley,1913 Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde and the Knight's Tale Frieda Elaine Penninger,1993 This book examines Troilus and Criseyde and The Knight s Tale as poems which work the same plot to contrasting tragic and joyous endings but for the same purpose of exploring the folly of electing the temporal world over the eternal It demonstrates that the tragedy of Troilus and Criseyde is a consequence of the folly of relying on Fortune and temporal bliss and works through the pattern of a similar dependence in The Knight s Tale It then develops the portrayal of the protagonists of the poems as Fortune s Fools through a scrutiny of courtship as game of play of caritas and cupiditas contrasted with the implications of pity mercy grace and love as used in temporal contexts in the poem but defined theologically elsewhere in Chaucer and of the limitations of knighthood and chivalry as defined by the world of the poems

Sex, Love, and Romance in the Mass Media Mary-Lou Galician,2004-07-16 This accessible yet research based text offers both foundational theories and practical applications of analysis and criticism of mass media portrayals of sex love and romance in a wide variety of mass media from entertainment to advertising to news The multidisciplinary methodological perspective comes out of a media literacy approach and embraces a variety of traditions along the quantitative qualitative continuum Focused on portrayals of male female coupleship the book is centered around the 12 major myths and stereotypes of Galician s Dr FUN s Mass Media Love Quiz each of which has a corresponding Dr Galician Prescription that encapsulates healthy strategies rarely found in the mass media to counteract that myth or stereotype Readers learn how to identify illustrate deconstruct evaluate and reframe the mass media s mythic and stereotypic portrayals of sex love and romance They also learn how to use their own formal critical evaluations to clarify their own values and as media consumers or mass communication creators to share their insights with others Thus the learning objectives encompass all three major educational domains cognitive affective and behavioral Part I of this book covers the five foundations myths and stereotypes of love and coupleship models of realistic and constructive love and coupleship mass media storytelling approaches techniques and devices research and theories of mass media effects and strategies and skills of media literacy Part II is devoted to exploring the myths and stereotypes identified in the Quiz Following several brief case studies and a summary of related research and commentary each chapter focuses on analyses and criticisms of portrayals of sex love and romance in the content of news and advertising as well as entertainment using Galician's Seven Step Disillusioning Directions Each chapter concludes with a Disillusion Digest While critical of unrealistic portrayals and the damage they can cause unsuspecting media consumers Galician a media literacy advocate is not anti media Rather her goal is to empower consumers to use these portrayals with more awareness of their possible consequences to resist adopting them as models for actual behavior and to consciously reframe them into more realistic productive scenarios This unique text is an engaging classroom resource for media literacy media and relationships and media and society coursework

Agrotopias Abby L. Goode, 2022-08-24 In this book Abby L Goode reveals the foundations of American environmentalism and the enduring partnership between racism eugenics and agrarian ideals in the United States Throughout the nineteenth century writers as diverse as Martin Delany Charlotte Perkins Gilman and Walt Whitman worried about unsustainable conditions such as population growth and plantation slavery In response they imagined agrotopias sustainable societies unaffected by the nation's agricultural and population crises elsewhere Though seemingly progressive these agrotopian visions depicted selective breeding and racial improvement as the path to environmental stability In this fascinating study Goode uncovers an early sustainability rhetoric interested in shaping just as much as sustaining the American population Showing how ideas about race and reproduction were central to early sustainability thinking Goode unearths an alternative environmental archive that ranges from gothic novels to Black nationalist manifestos from Waco Texas to the West Indies from city tenements to White House kitchen gardens Exposing the eugenic foundations of some of our most well regarded environmental traditions this book compels us to reexamine the benevolence of American environmental thought

Conjugal Love: Our Path of Return Clayten Tylor,2019-03-04 Conjugal love is the Divine as a feeling It is the spiritual heat and light of every soul It is the feeling of gratitude to the Universe together with the feeling of mutual love to the neighbor To receive conjugal love requires that we first will the affection of love upwards and outwards In this way we expand our sense of self to get a glimpse of the feeling of the four fold rhythm of Divine order Once the sensual rhythm of Divine order has been established as the feeling of love it purifies our feeling of self of its identification and attachment with the physical body This new spiritual perspective transforms our sense of self from personality to individuality which then awakens the feeling of conjugal love The feeling of conjugal love is our Path of Return Within the flow of the feeling of conjugal love we can sense our spiritual self first as the feeling of profound peace but then as higher states of love as feelings of being infinite and eternal The Lumber Room Catherine Bellairs Gaskoin,1913

The Evolution of Love Sheldon W. Liebman,2021-04-06 This book an examination of Judaism as it evolved over a period of approximately 1 500 years is an analysis of the Hebrew Bible and other ancient Jewish writings with special emphasis on theology and morality By the middle of the first millennium with the writing of Deuteronomy the Psalms and the works of the prophets Judaism had embraced the idea that God is a compassionate father that His relationship with His people is based on love rather than fear and that His response to their commission of sins is based on the assumption that they are capable of repentance and worthy of forgiveness In the final stage of its development culminating in the first and second centuries AD Judaism was understood to require its adherents to enact the will of God specifically to establish a community based on political economic and social laws that enforce the principles of justice and mercy And that process came to be seen as inevitably dependent on human agency the need for human beings to fulfill God s commandments In Judaism loving neighbors and strangers came to be understood as the principal and for many Jews the only way of loving God

The Fabric of Hope Glenn Tinder,2001 This superb new volume is addressed to everyone interested in hope regardless of their religious or philosophical beliefs Glenn Tinder one of our most astute and creative thinkers probes the failure of modern secular hope and shows with great sensitivity and openness why the tenets of Christian faith offer a true and meaningful source for hope amid the widespread distress confusion and despondency of contemporary life From The Critics Jean Bethke Elshtain Glenn Tinder argues compellingly that modern despondency flows from a collapse of unreasonable optimism about our individual and collective prospects By contrast to despondency and brittle optimism Tinder calls for a renewal of hope Framed by Christian belief Tinder s elegant essay reaches out to appeal to all men and women troubled by our current condition A beautifully written and touching work Michael Novak Tinder s weighty essay on the nature spirituality and politics of hope offers an illuminating perspective on a central pillar of civilization Mary Ann Glendon A pristine intellectual and spiritual achievement by one of the most penetrating thinkers of our day Richard John Neuhaus With this essay Tinder once again vindicated his reputation as one of the most incisive thinkers and graceful writers working today His is a most powerful argument that only a hope that has come to terms with all the reasons for despair can sustain us into a future that we do not and cannot control Tinder s wisdom is in knowing that attention to first things requires facing up to last things
