translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation Lu Hsun Xun Lu, David Y. Ch'en, 1988 The Flowering of Modern Chinese Poetry, 2016-09-01 The May Fourth Movement launched an era of turmoil and transformation in China as Western ideas and education encroached on the Confucian traditions at the root of Chinese society The Republican period 1919-49 witnessed an outpouring of poetry in a form and style new to China written in the common people's language baihua plain speech The New Poetry broke with the centuries old tradition of classical poetry and its intricate forms and the rise of China's modern poetry reflects the rise of modern China The Flowering of Modern Chinese Poetry presents English translations of over 250 poems by fifty poets including a rich selection of poetry by women writers to provide a nuanced picture of the rapid development of vernacular verse in China from its emergence during the May Fourth Movement through the years of the Japanese invasion to the Communist victory in the Civil War in 1949 Michel Hockx introduces the historical and literary contexts of the various schools of vernacular poetry that developed throughout the period the pioneers formalists symbolists peasants and soldiers poets and Shanghai poets of the late 1940s Each selection of verse begins with a biographical sketch of the author's life and literary career including their roles in the Civil War and Japanese occupation Introducing English readers to master poets who are virtually unknown to Western audiences this anthology presents a collection of verse written in an age of struggle that attests to the courage sensitivity and imagination of the Chinese people Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Literary Remains Eileen J. Cheng, 2013-04-30 Lu Xun 1881-1936 arguably twentieth century China's greatest writer is commonly cast in the mold of a radical iconoclast who vehemently rejected traditional culture The contradictions and ambivalence so central to his writings however are often overlooked Challenging conventional depictions Eileen J. Cheng's innovative readings capture Lu Xun's disenchantment with modernity and his transformative engagements with traditional literary conventions in his modern experimental works Lurking behind the ambiguity at the heart of his writings are larger questions on the effects of cultural exchange accommodation and transformation that Lu Xun grappled with as a writer How can a culture estranged from its vanishing traditions come to terms with its past How can a culture severed from its roots and alienated from the foreign conventions it appropriates conceptualize its own present and future Literary Remains shows how Lu Xun's own literary encounter with the modern involved a sustained engagement with the past His creative writings which imitate adapt and parody traditional literary conventions represent and mirror the trauma of cultural disintegration in content and in form His contradictory uncertain and at times bizarrely incoherent narratives refuse to conform to conventional modes of meaning making or teleological notions of history opening up imaginative possibilities for comprehending the past and present without necessarily reifying them Behind Lu Xun's refusal to mourn that is his insistence on keeping the past and the dead alive in writing lies an ethical claim to recover the redemptive meaning of loss

Like a solitary wanderer keeping vigil at the site of destruction he sifts through the debris composing epitaphs to mark both the presence and absence of that which has gone before and will soon come to pass For in the rubble of what remains he recovered precious gems of illumination through which to assess critique and transform the moment of the present Literary Remains shows how Lu Xun's literary enterprise is driven by a radical hope that in spite of the destruction he witnessed and the limits of representation his writings like the texts that inspired his own might somehow capture glimmers of the past and the present and illuminate a future yet to unfold Literary Remains will appeal to a wide audience of students and scholars interested in Lu Xun modern China cultural studies and world literature

Beyond Brushtalk Christopher T. Keaveney, 2008-11-01 Beyond Brushtalk explores interactions between Japanese and Chinese writers during the golden age of such exchange 1919 to 1937 During this period there were unprecedented opportunities for exchange between writers which was made possible by the ease of travel between Japan and China during these years and the educational background of Chinese writers as students in Japan Although the salubrious interaction that developed during that period was destined not to last it nevertheless was significant as a courageous essay at cultural interaction This book will appeal not only to those interested in Sino Japanese studies an increasingly important field of study in its own right but will also appeal to scholars of both Japanese literature and Chinese literature and researchers whose areas of interest correspond to the major writers included in this work such as Lu Xun and Zhou Zuoren on the Chinese side and Tanizaki Jun ichir and Hayashi Fumiko on the Japanese side The relations and resulting literary works involving these major writers are often relatively neglected aspects of their total output and will draw interest from scholars of their work This book will be accessible to both Sinologists and Japanologists with little background in the corresponding field and to the generalist

Antipodean China Nicholas Jose,Benjamin Madden,2021-02-01 Antipodean China is a collection of essays drawn from a series of encounters between Australian and Chinese writers which took place in China and Australia over a ten year period from 2011 The encounters could be defensive especially given the need to depend on translators but as the writers spoke about the places important to them their influences and their work resemblances emerged and the different perspectives contributed to a sense of common understanding about literature and about the role of the writer in society In some cases the communication is even more direct as when the Tibetan author A Lai speaks knowingly about Alexis Wright s novel Carpentaria and the two winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature Mo Yan and J M Coetzee discuss what the Nobel meant for each of them The collection also includes writing by some of the best Chinese and Australian writers novelists Brian Castro Gail Jones Julia Leigh Yu Hua Sheng Keyi and Liu Zhenyun poets Kate Fagan Ouyang Yu Xi Chuan and Zheng Xiaoqiong and translators Eric Abrahamsen Li Yao and John Minford In the current situation of hostility and suspicion between the two countries this collection presents what may be seen in retrospect as an idyllic moment of communication and trust
