Luc Tuymans Heimat:

Luc Tuymans Eva Meyer-Hermann, 2018-01-09 This first volume in a catalogue raisonné of Tuymans's paintings surveys nearly 200 works from the vital early years of his career. Credited with a key role in the revival of painting in the 1990s, Belgian artist Luc Tuymans (b. 1958) continues to produce subtle and at times unsettling works that engage with history, technology, and everyday life. This first volume in a catalogue raisonné of Tuymans's paintings surveys nearly 200 works that were vital to his artistic development. The years 1972 to 1994 witnessed the maturation of his signature method of painting from preexisting imagery such as magazine images, Polaroids, and television footage, as well as his first solo exhibition. Also dating from this period are many of his seminal canvases, along with ten poignant portraits of the ailing human body and the enigmatic series Superstition that comprised his first works exhibited in the United States. The catalogue features brilliant new photography of each of the paintings and an illustrated chronology with archival images and installation shots of the works in this volume. This publication is a testament to Tuymans's persistent assertion of the relevance and importance of painting, a conviction that he maintains even in today's digital world when his work continues to be a touchstone for artists and scholars.

Concepts on the Move, 2016-10-11 In order to give an impetus to the production of an apparatus of aesthetic concepts in line with Deleuze and Guattari's claim to create new concepts for a changing world, this volume publishes statements and discussions of ten Concept on the Move workshops, as well as texts and discussions of the concluding Concept on the Move symposium. The integral outcome of the workshops, the symposium, and the discussions does not, however, present some sort of blueprint for the future of visual art and aesthetics. If one wished to designate the Concepts on the Move publication in one notion at all, that definitively could only be TOOLKIT. A TOOLKIT in the sense of a great collection of ideas, topics, issues, notions, and concepts emerging in the 21st-century world of visual art and theory. They indeed could serve as an impetus for the construction and production of a body of theoretical work fit to understand today's technological, theoretical, and artistic developments in the art world. Are concepts on the move? Yes, they are, and they always will be on the great journey visual art takes them. La Biennale di Venezia, Arsenale di Venezia, 2001 Images

Performing History Katarzyna Ruchel-Stockmans, 2015-09-18 The operative role of the photographic media in making and remaking history. History is increasingly made in images not only because its records are largely photographic but also because our ideas about the past are formed in visual terms. This book offers a discussion of contemporary art practices which question the received notions of historical representations after the pivotal changes of 1989 in Europe. These art practices reveal in different ways the operative role of the photographic media in making and remaking history. Not limited to a particular artistic medium, they demonstrate how history is forged through enacting or re-enacting its past forms while, on the other hand, they indicate how copying and quoting can contribute to creating a new operative aesthetics. By foregrounding a performative character of images, art is shown to construct an alternative knowledge of the past. Among others the works of the following artists are discussed in this book Zofia Kulik Yael Bartana Harun Farocki and Andrej Ujic
